Angelicus

NINETEEN HUNDRED SEVENTY

Dear Nancy,

Well, kid what could I say. You've finally made it. After 2 years here I bet you're ready to go anywhere else. I just want to tell you that you were the first normal (not a nun) teacher I ever had. And I was probably in a new catagory for you too so I guess we're even huh? I want to wish you all the luck in the world when it comes to your future. Through all those pattern practices I tried my best to controll myself and I'm sure you did the same when it came to my escapades. I want you to remember all the good times that were had. (even though they really don't seem to come often) Remember Class day and our fabulous future school? Remember our sing day, I hope it meant us much to you as it did to us. This whole year is worth framing.

Love always

Sandy

Remember me.

Dear Miss Herzman,
This year has been truly great and that's 'cause we had you as an official! I've never met a teacher as friendly as you. You're more of a friend than a teacher. You've more joy and happiness in your new life and never forget the class of 12-3 because you'll never be forgotten!

Love,
Karen B.

Dear Miss Herzman,
What can I say except that it's been really great having you for a teacher this year. I have never had a teacher who was so considerate, friendly and genuinely concerned!
Thank you for being you and making my senior year very happy (even when you threw me out of the classroom almost every day!!!)
I wish you the best of everything in the future! You will not be forgotten. Give my regards to Chris!
Love, Peace, Happiness
Helen M.

Dear Miss Herzie Baby,
You're a real doll and a beautiful person! I hope you & Chris will always be happy & love each other as you both do now. See you at the church!
Peace, Ronnie

Dear Miss Herzman,
I really enjoyed this year with you as our official teacher. I wish you all the success and happiness that life can offer. '12-3 will never forget you!
Love,
Mary Bauer

Dear Miss Herzman,
I wish you all the love, happiness and luck in life which is possible. Thanks to you I've found Senior English interesting and fun, too (more than I can say for previous Eng. periods). You're a real and beautiful person and I hope that your future will be as wonderful and successful as can be! I'll probably see ya at the church!
Love + Peace
Chrissy G.

Dear Miss Herzman,
It was great having you for an official. I enjoyed having you teach my class last year and I was very happy when I learned you would be our official this year. Thanks for being such a great teacher and such a wonderful person. Wishing you lots of luck + happiness in your marriage.
Love, Cat.

Dear Miss Herzman,
Or may I say Nancy?
As both our official teacher and English teacher this year, you've been the best, most wonderful possible. I always enjoyed English, but this year even more so. You seemed so interested and concerned it made me want to do my best. You've been a good friend as well, friendly and warm always. Thank you for being you. I hope you and Chris share a life of love and happiness (You can help carry me off the stage at Queens College, okay?) Thank you for your support and help.

Love,
Eileen McCooey

Dear Miss Herzman,
It's been a great year and a half. You are really a "groovy" English teacher. May you find all the happiness that you deserve. Be good - Take Care,

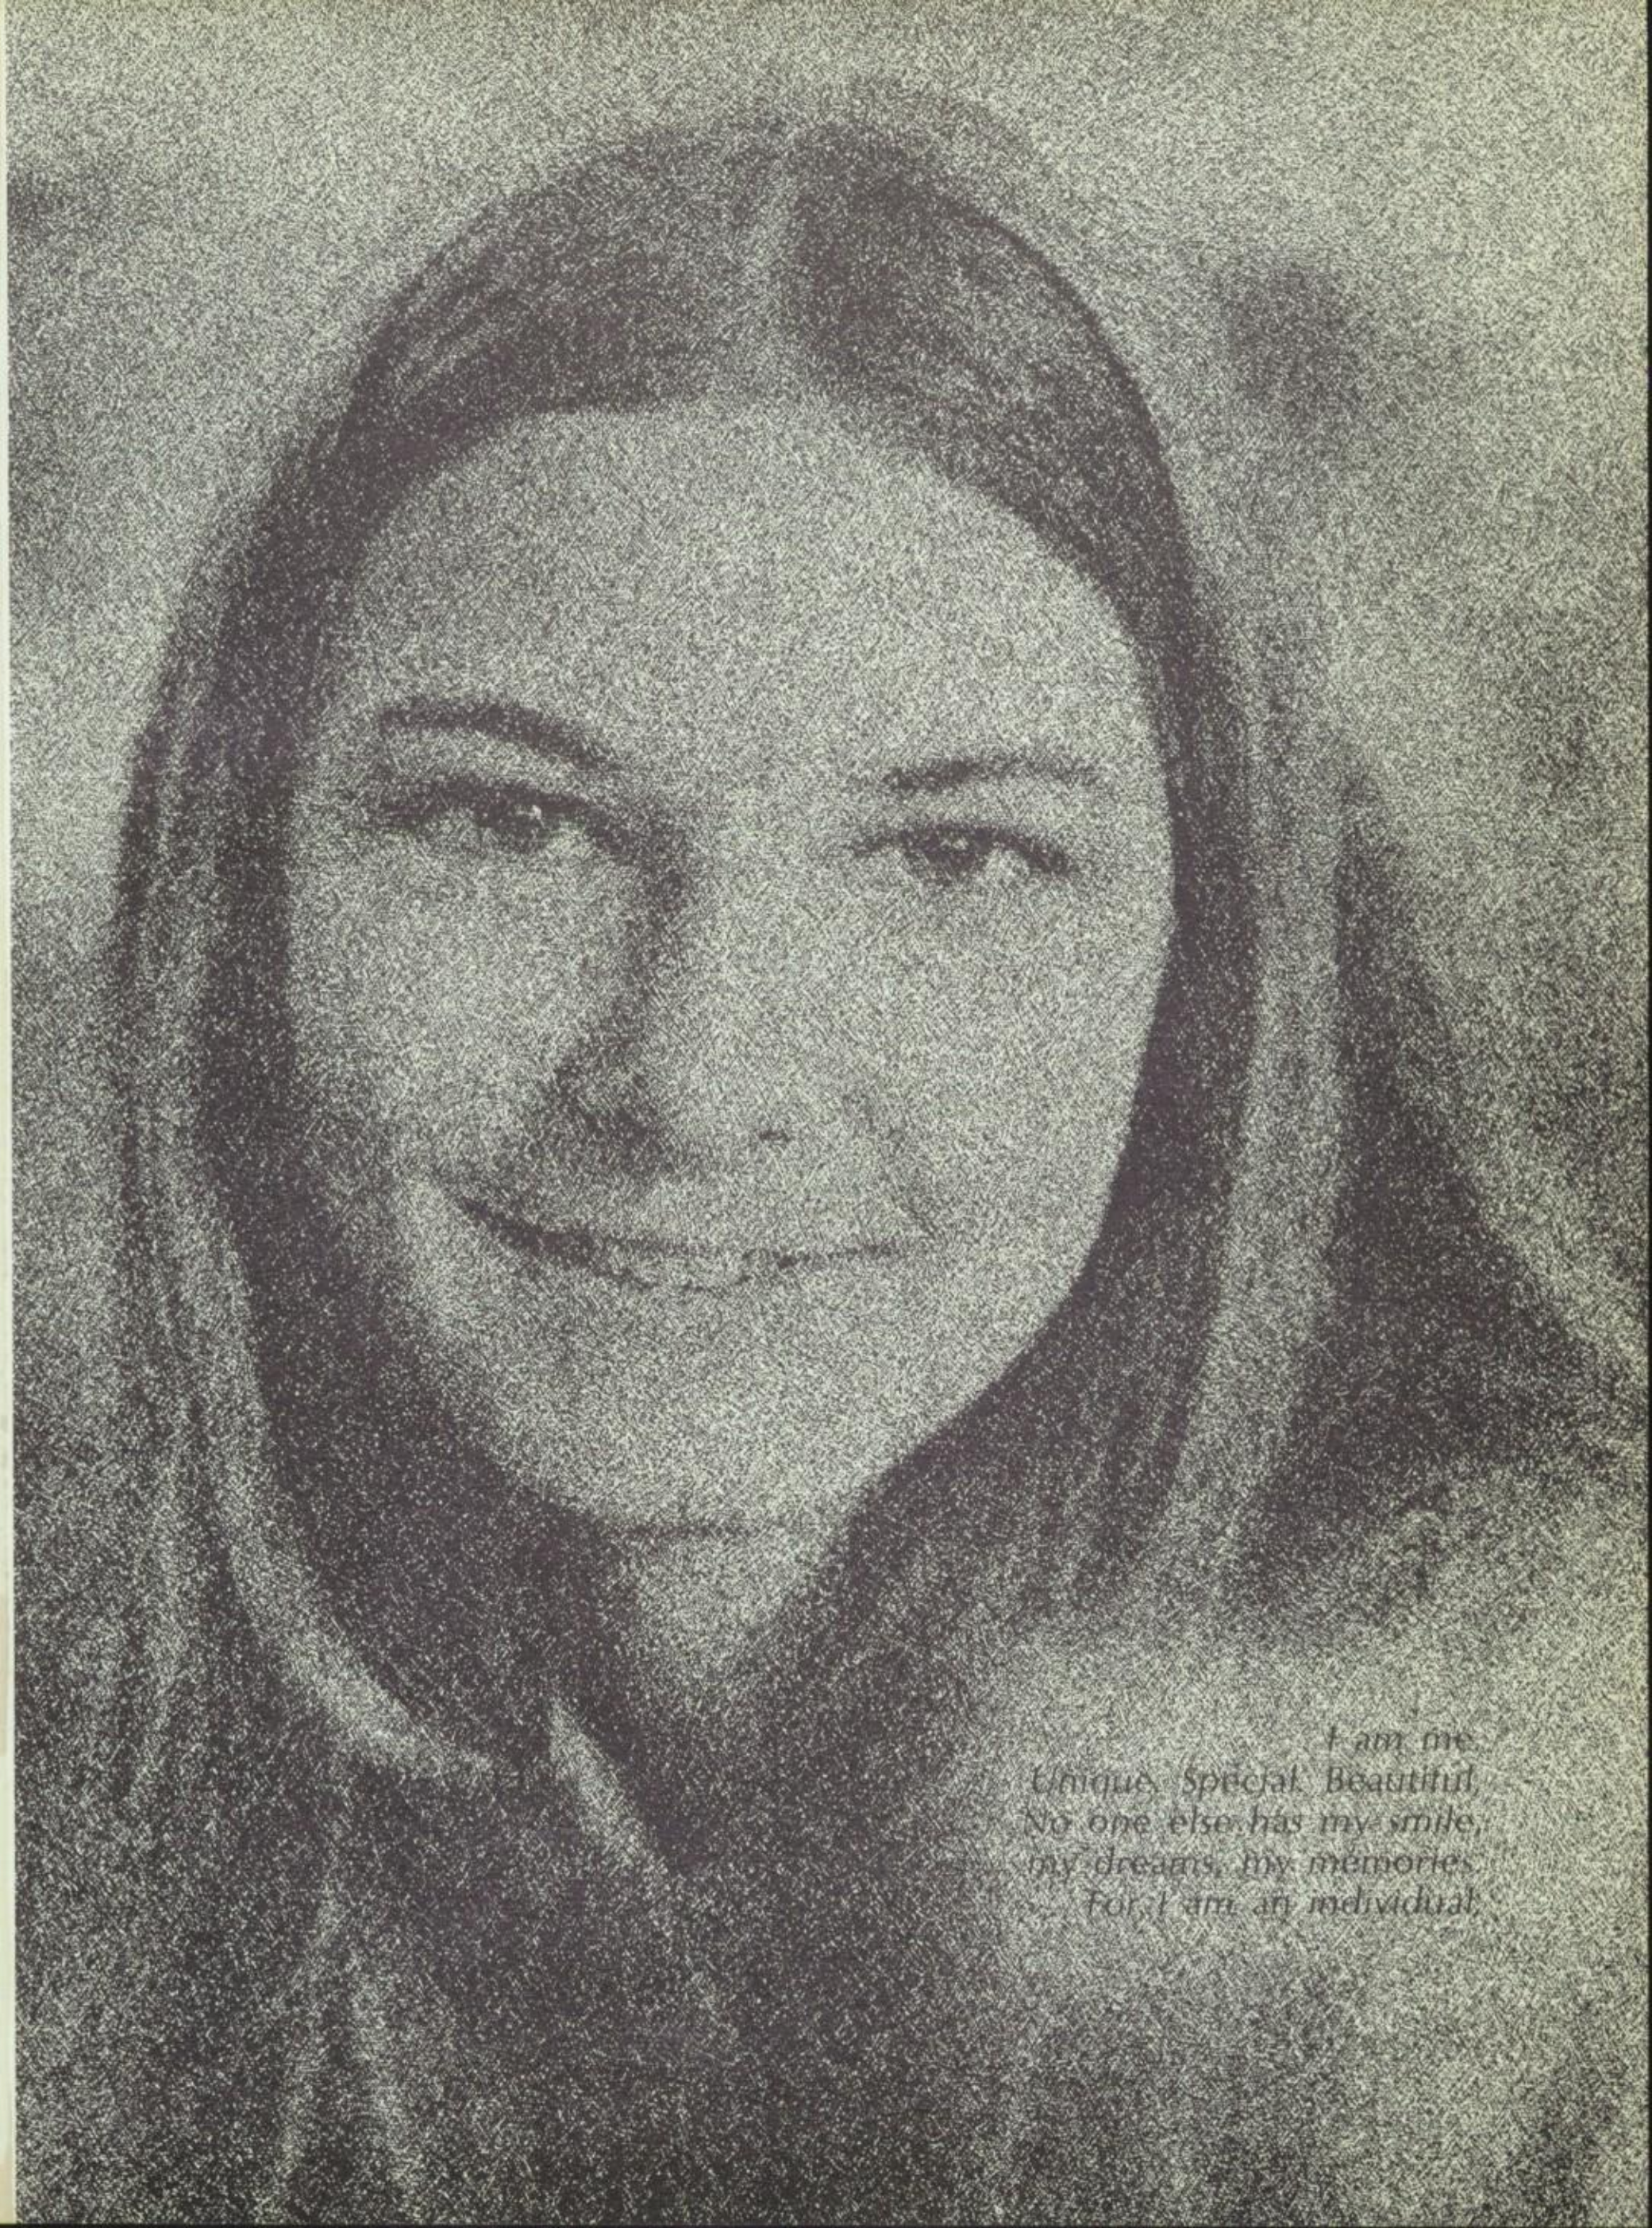
Love
Pat
(Gibney)

Dear Miss Herzman,
I'm really glad we've had you as one of our teachers this year + especially as our official. I wish you the best of luck + I hope your marriage will bring you much happiness + as many beautiful children you may desire.

Love,
Elise

Dear Miss Herzman,
Just a word to thank you for being such a great teacher and friend. Next I want to wish you all the love and happiness with Chris that life has to offer. You deserve the best.
Take care.

Love
Chris Wetter



I am me.
Unique. Special. Beautiful.
No one else has my smile,
my dreams, my memories.
For I am an individual.

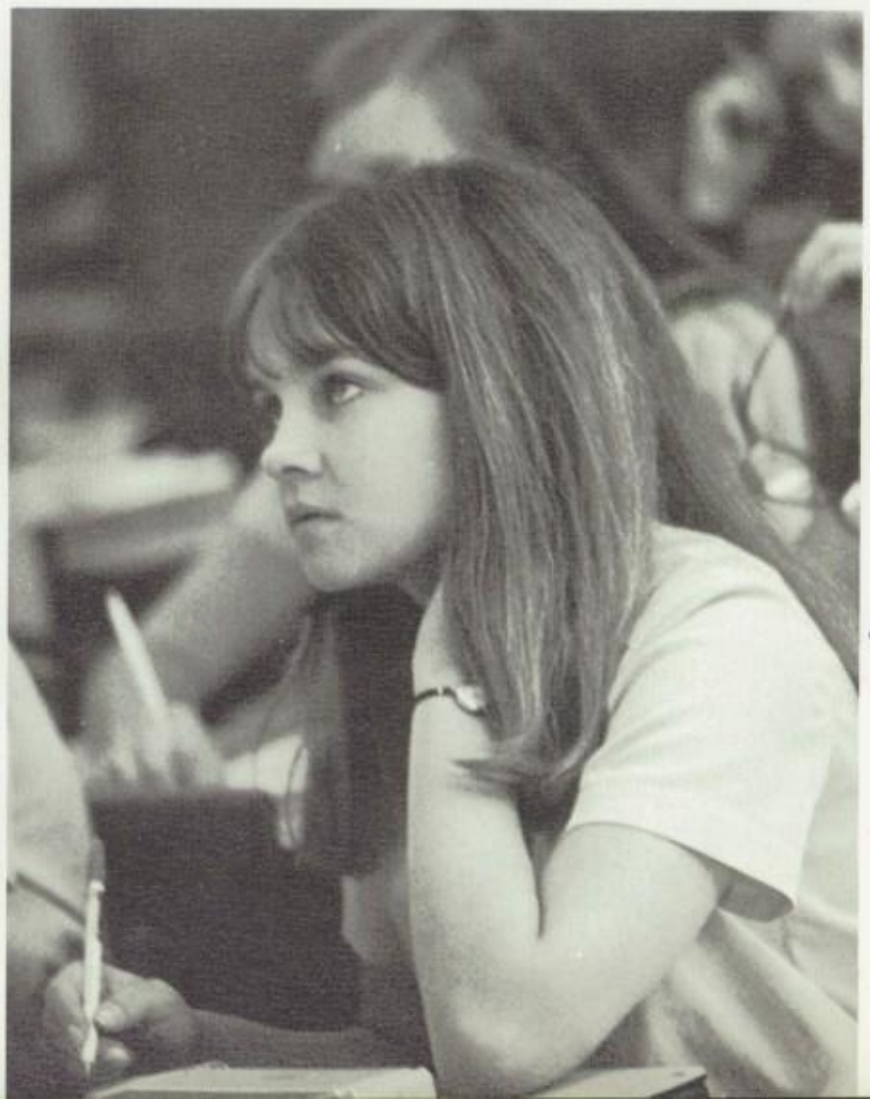
striving to find myself through others.

Dear Miss Nurgham,
Thanks alot for everything! You're tought me alot of manners & courtesy! Good Luck with your marriage! Found you happiness!
Love Jerry

At times I am confused

. . . troubled



Dear Miss Herzman,

— Always remember my attentive look in A P class... uncertain.

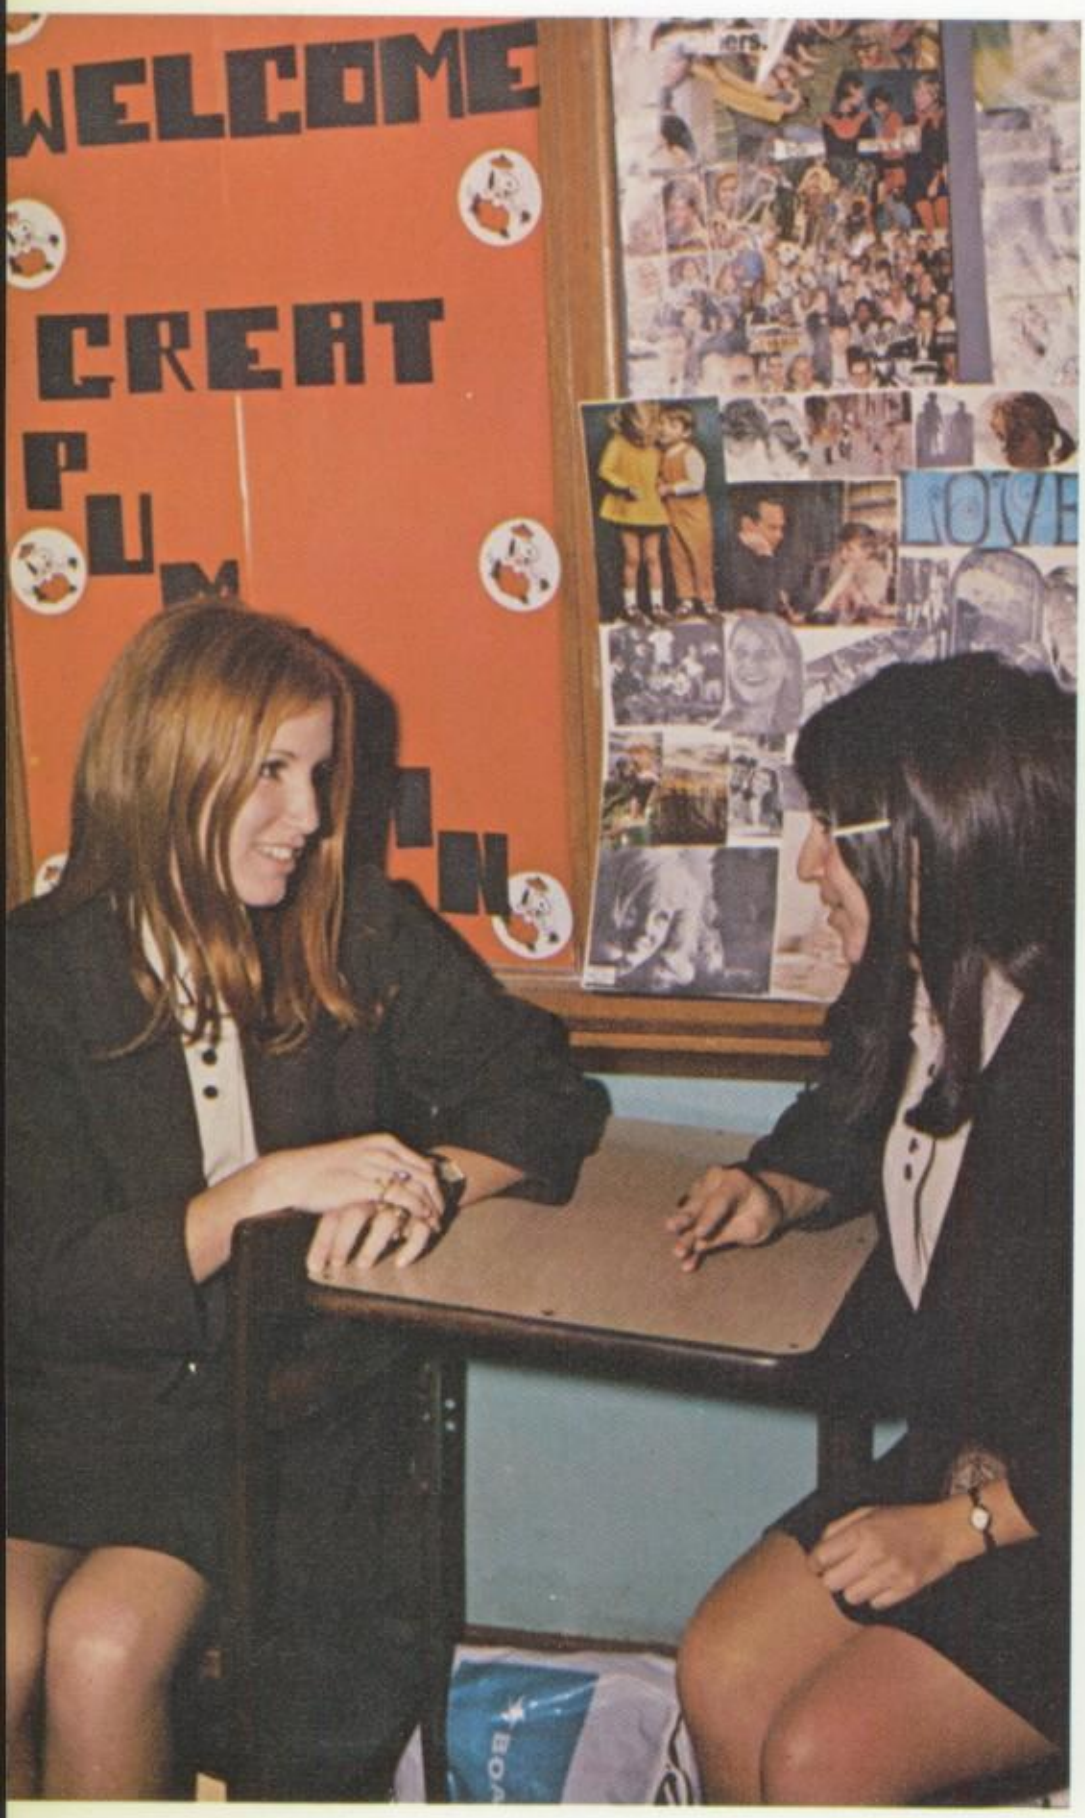
God bless your marriage. Your marrying a fine stock of people. Even if he's half Russian it doesn't matter cause everyone's Russian in their heart.

God love you & thanks for all you've done for me.

A genuine (& probably the only) Gush lover,

Valerie

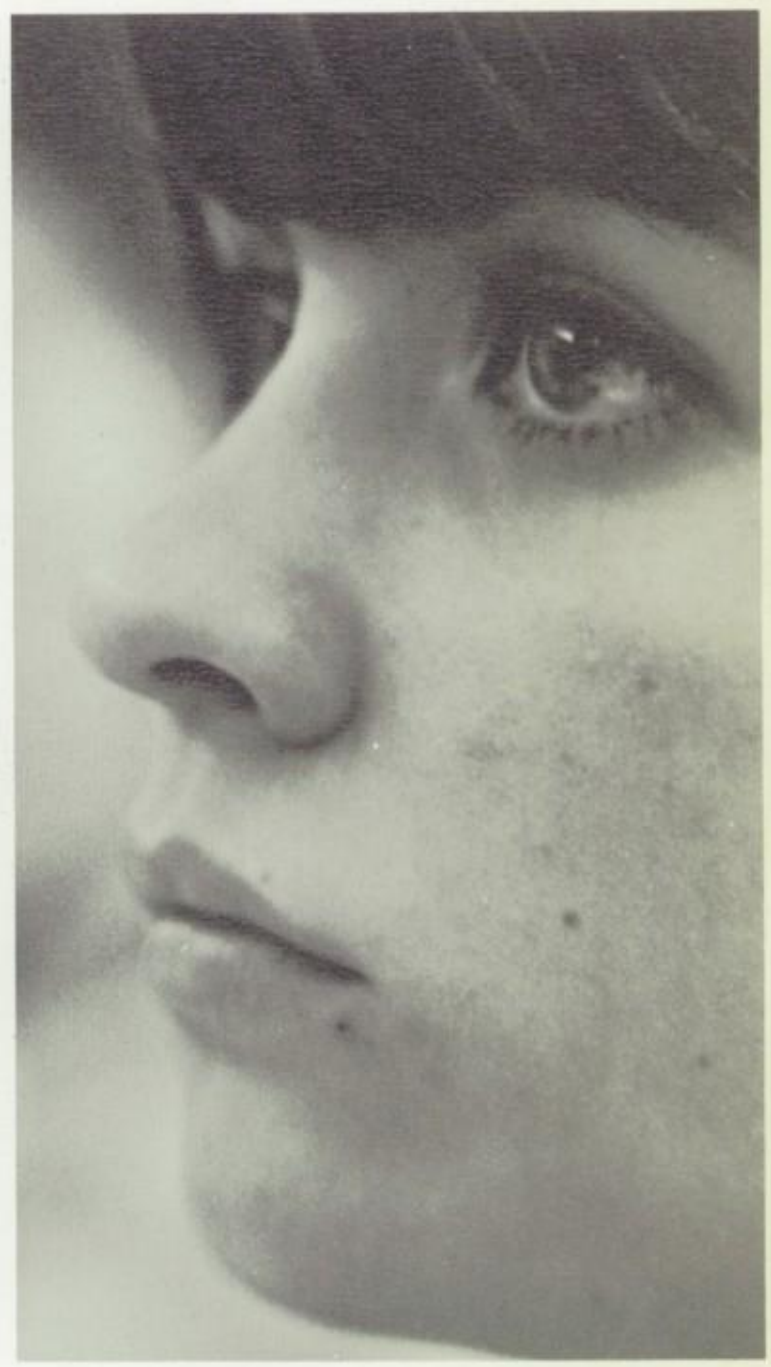
Then sunshine fills my heart,
making me light-hearted and fanciful.



Dear Miss Herzog,
Here again, I forgot the book I forgot to tell you that I'm sure you'll never forget the Mets in 69-70 as I promised. Also I solemnly swear to spread the Lord by the Rec Best of luck in the future.

Love,
Janet
P.S. Perhaps someday you'll be a MET FAN(??)!

With wondering eyes, I look at life.



I dream of days past,

of my life now,

of moments to come.

New worlds are awaiting me,
and I am afraid.
But I long to open new doors,
to walk new paths.

DEDICATION

What makes a great school truly great?
Is it the editor of the school paper,
Its star basketball player
Or the girl always voted "Miss Popularity?"
Maybe it is the shy, quiet girl,
Isolated, alone.
In reality, it is a kaleidoscope
Of many different types of girls,
Like a bouquet of flowers,
Each flower a thing of beauty;
A unique work of nature.
Each girl with her own feelings,
Emotions, thoughts, aspirations,
And ideals.
Each dedicated to making her school
Just a little bit better
Than any other school,
And also herself in the process.
Girls in the act of finding
Their path to the future and what it holds.
Girls who participate
And join together with one another
In spirit, striving for unity,
In support of a worthy cause.
And who,
Through the friendships they have made
And the crises they have faced,
Both large and small,
Will develop into mature, well-rounded
Beautiful individuals
With a sharp consciousness of life
And living.

It is with great pride
And deep appreciation,
That we dedicate ANGELICUS 1970
To these girls—
THE STUDENT BODY OF D.C.

In a unified effort toward a common goal, different roles contribute to the success and achievement of a school. As Principal, Sister Miriametta is familiar with the needs of both the students and the faculty and has done much to relieve them. Our new Assistant Principal, Sister William Marie, has helped many students adjust to the pressures and demands of high school. As you look through the following pages, perhaps you will see in the faces of all our faculty, the eagerness and willingness that we as students see everyday.

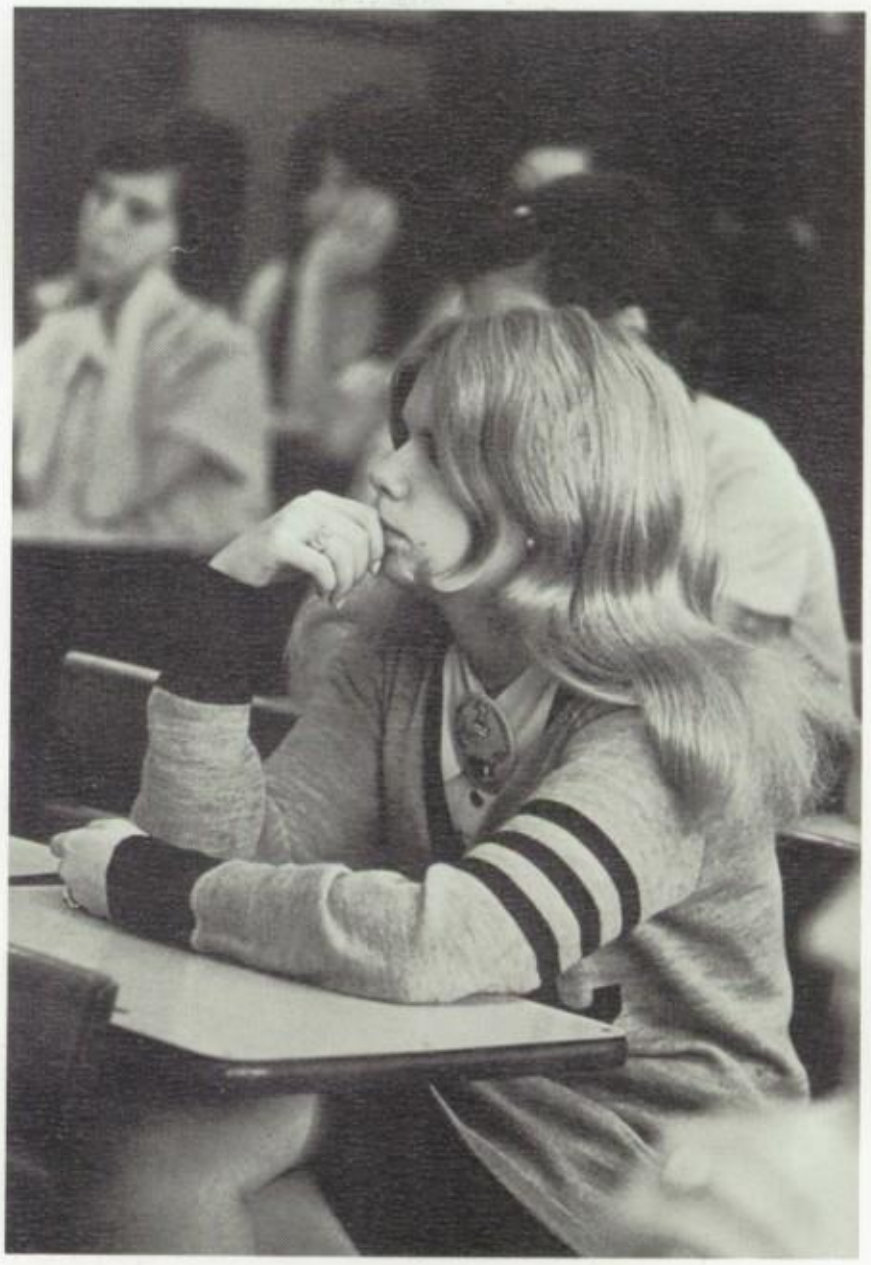
KNOWLEDGE OF SELF AND OTHERS

After drawing an illustrative diagram on the board, Sister Marianne gives an encouraging smile.

When question was raised as to the reasons for our Religion course, the answer was that we were striving for unity with God and our neighbor. In order to attain this goal, the students are introduced to both the Old and the New Testaments and apply them personally to their lives. Different segments are studied throughout the four years together with the history of the Church and its role in the present world.

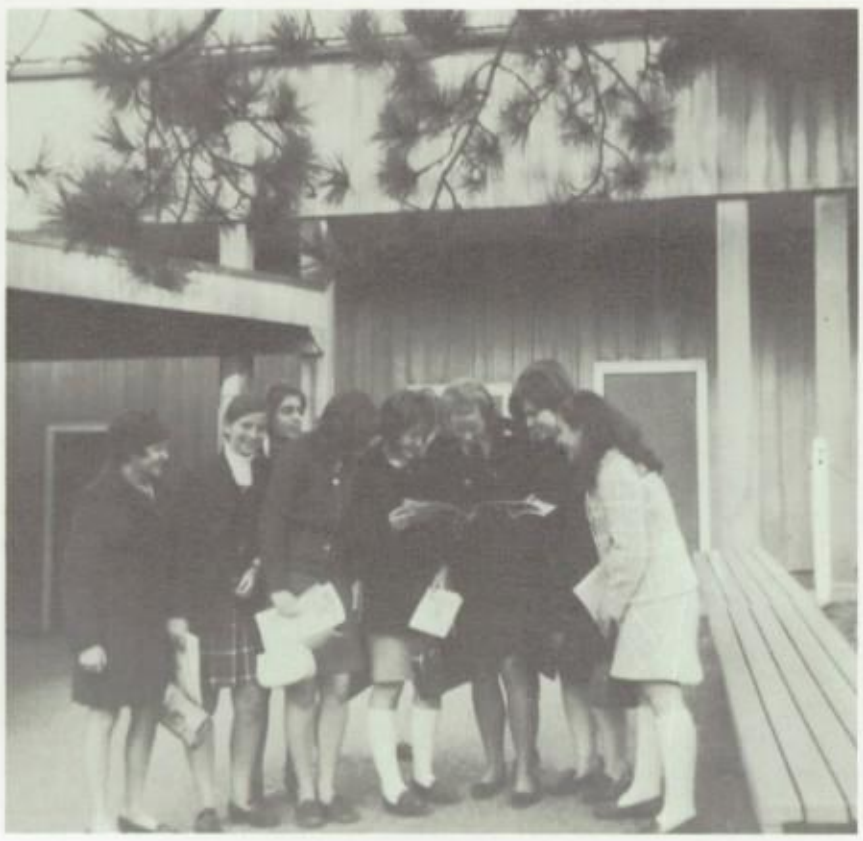
Senior year is the culmination of the relationship between God and self. The course primarily discusses morality and its effects on each individual. Our beliefs become a way of life and carry meaning as we search for our position in this world. The many classes in this subject have inspired every Dominican girl and these inspirations will be the source of courage to face life's challenges.

Dominicans participate in our Thanksgiving Mass with Father Myles.



During Senior religion class, concentration and attention are evident in the faces of all.

PERSONAL GROWTH THROUGH COMMUNICATION



During intermission at Stratford, some seniors stop to review the beginning acts of Richard the Second.

Fascinating her English class, Miss Herzman brings to life the old Greek gods and the myths of Golden Greece.

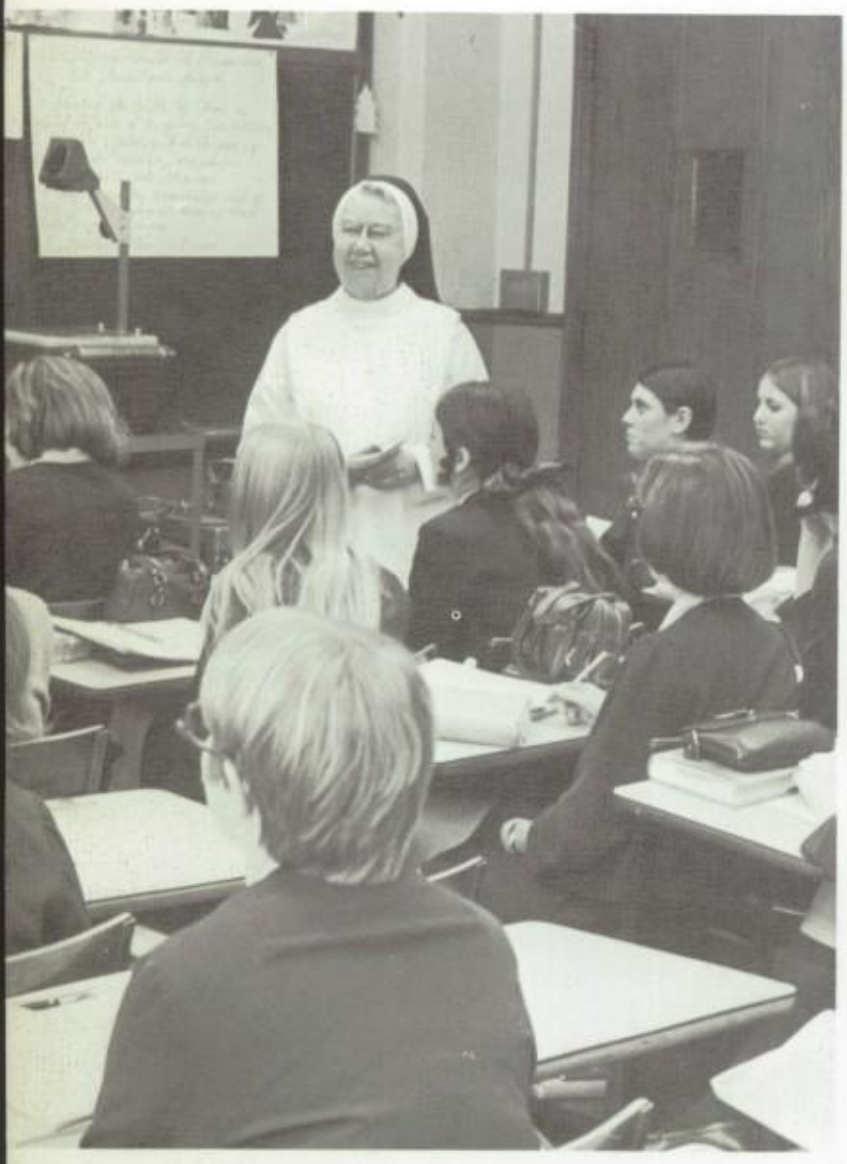
Miss Krumm offers encouragement and aid to a student in the understanding of her literature.

English is the key to all our other subjects in school. As Department Chairman, Sister Patricia Nolan makes certain that throughout the four years, students come into contact with grammar usage, philosophies, themes, dramas, and backgrounds of American and English literature.

During freshman year, students are introduced to different types of poetry, plays, fiction, and non-fiction. Sophomores trace the history of American literature from its Pilgrim beginning to the twentieth century. As Juniors, the world of English drama, epics, and essays opens a new door to a growing knowledge about literature.

English becomes more exciting in Senior year as the students are free to delve into the messages of contemporary authors. A new Advanced Placement course in English is made available to college-bound students as well as a Humanities course.

CHALLENGES OF MAN



Sister Marguerite pleasantly reflects on a principle of economics.

Sister Nadine speaks about the problems of the Chinese people.

Since culture is the fundamental part of any country, freshmen begin there with the Afro-Asian Culture Studies. A new world of ideas and beliefs is opened for a better understanding of people. World History exposes Sophomores to the turbulent conflicts that inspired victory or defeat in the various ages of man's existence.

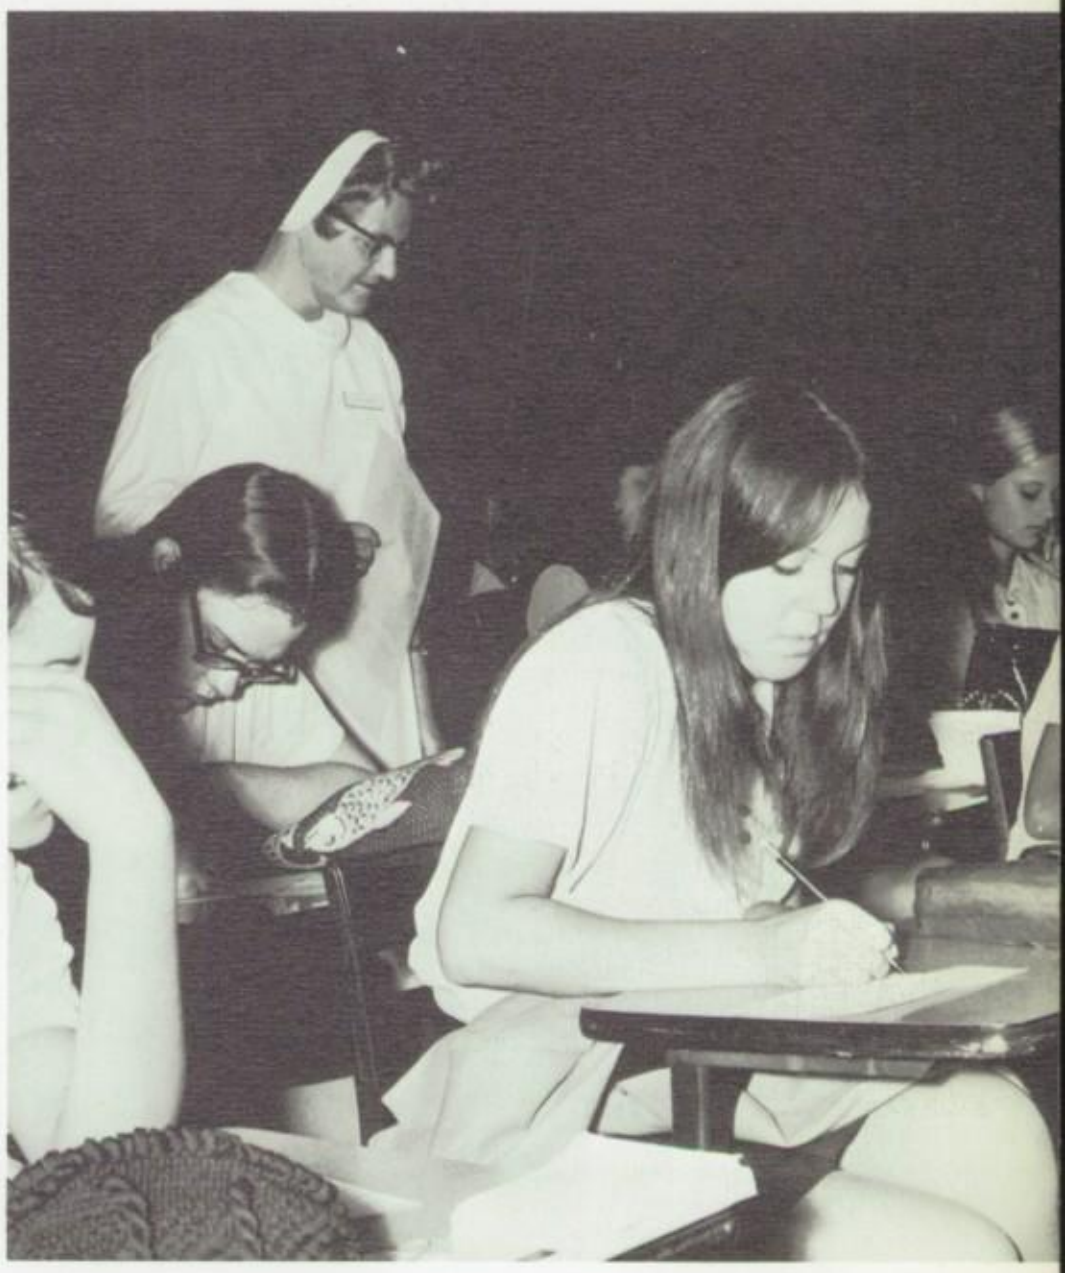
Learning the struggling progress of one's own country in American History enriches the Juniors and makes them appreciate their freedoms more. Seniors delve into the mechanics of history. A course in Economics explains the delicate financial balance a country must maintain for survival. Sociology is an introduction into the behavior of the world's inhabitants and its effects on world living. An experimental course, Black Studies, is offered and much knowledge concerning the contributions and feelings of the black people is acquired. The study of man's social conflicts helps us to use past experience in meeting the future's challenges.

Questioning students are encouraged in Sister Bernadette Clare's history class.

STRIVING TO UNDERSTAND OTHERS

Spanish song and dance became a lively part of Dominican when La Tuna from the University of Spain entertained.

Sister Natalie Marie adds a light touch to maintain student interest in Spanish III.

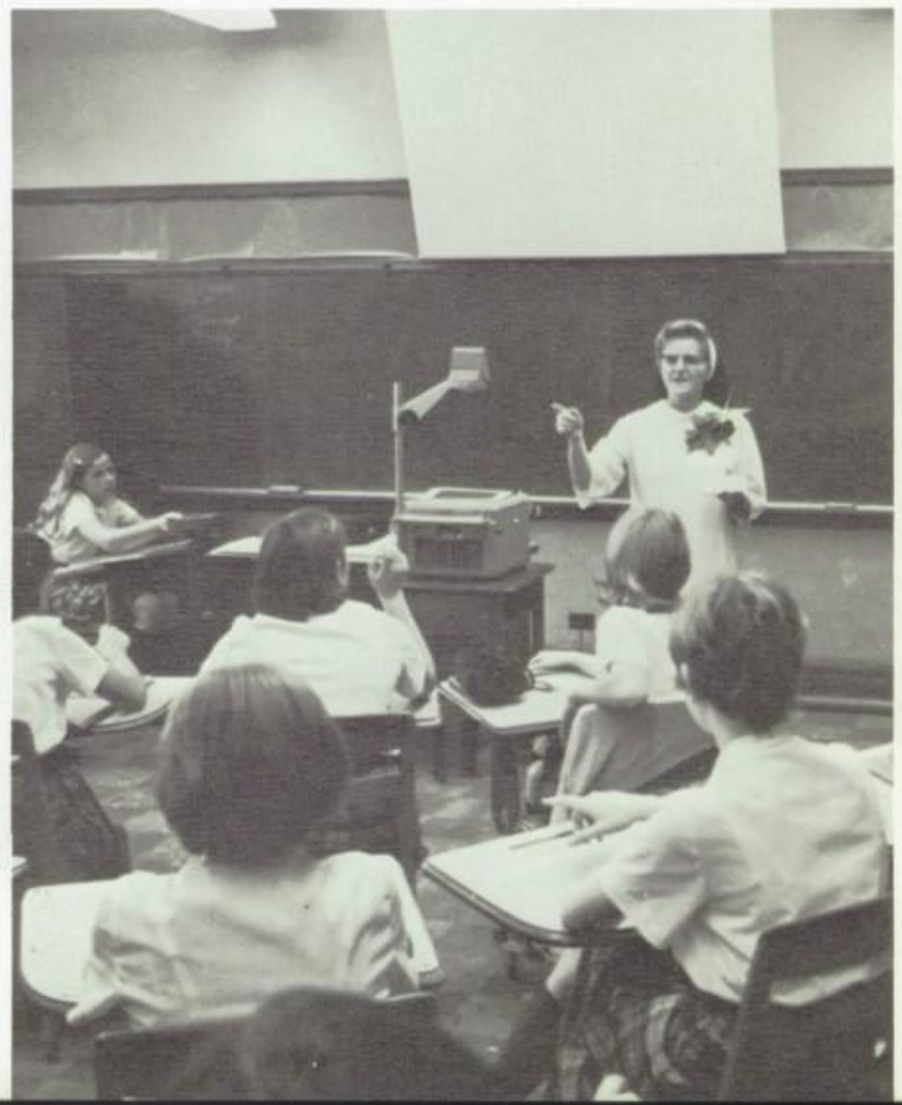


A moment of contemplation settles over Sister Rita's Spanish class as they struggle for that Spanish word.

Language plays an invaluable role in the ability to communicate with others in everyday living. Words are symbols that reflect the mind of man. The Spanish student of D.C. learns not only to speak, read, and write the language, but also to understand the life of these people.

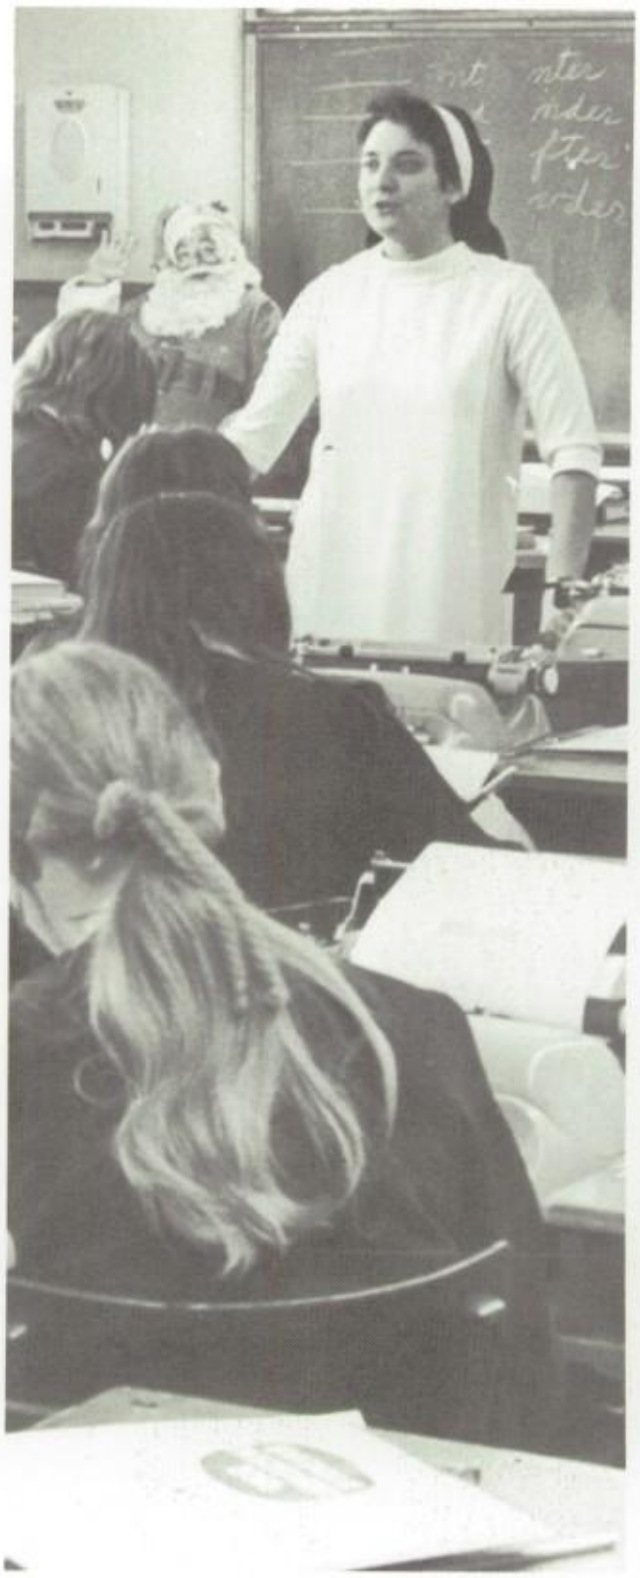
In Spanish class, the girls listen to and sing popular Spanish songs and Christmas carols, watch films and movies of Spain, and read Spanish newspapers and short stories. They also learn the culture of Spain—its history and geography, its literature, art, music, and science, its life and customs, its places of interest.

Studying a foreign language can instill in a person a desire for respect among all nations and a desire for peace through understanding. Today, a great stress placed upon understanding others and having the experience of sharing another people's language and customs will bring about the union of brotherhood.

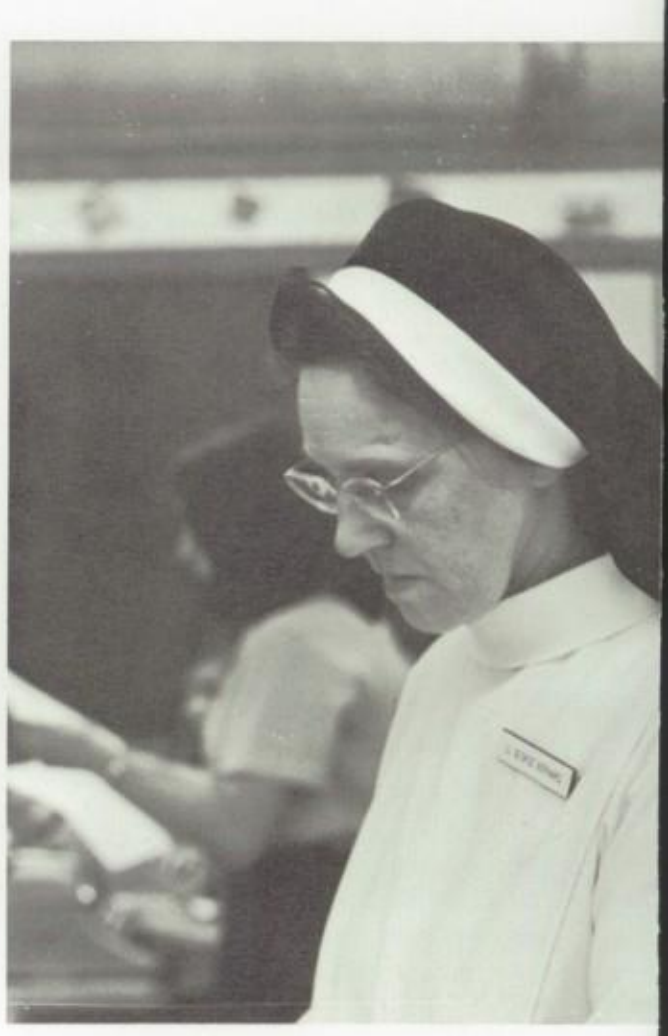


Sister Rita refreshes the student's memory and increases their insight into the life of the Spanish people.

PREPARING FOR



Sister Carol Anne keeps her Seniors busy with dictation.



Transcribing letters accurately is Sister George Bernard's aim for students.

It is Dominican's hope that its students become active and efficient participants in the business field. The business curriculum offered provides useful knowledge concerning the many facets of modern business.

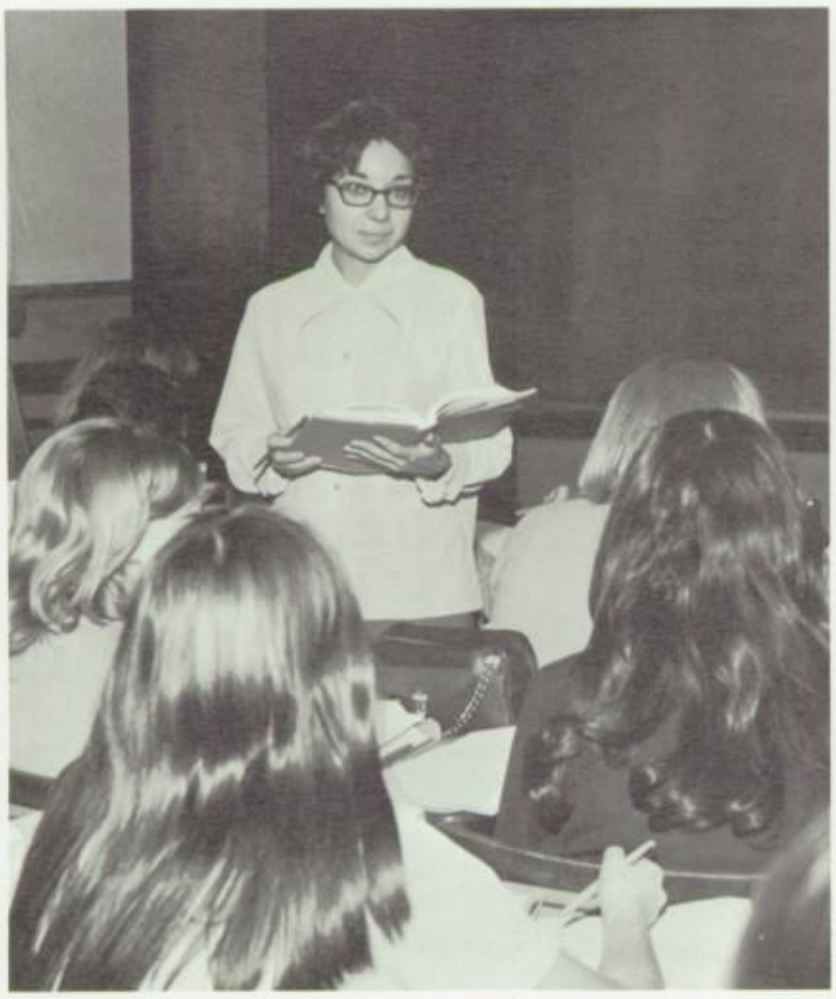
An Introduction to Business course presents to freshmen the business fundamentals, which include stocks and bonds, checks, and consumer responsibility.

In the second year, sophomores are introduced to stenography and typewriting, two essential skills. Daily practice on the keyboard and the constant use of symbols instead of the alphabet soon become second nature to the student. Business Math entails the arithmetic of trading—discounts, depreciation, retail and more.

Juniors pick up speed in typing and sten when transforming shorthand outlines to letters in Transcription. Six-month courses in Data Processing and Filing are given too.

Sister Katherine Mary acquaints Joan Mason and Eleanor Hawley with a modern business machine.

A REWARDING FUTURE



Miss Musico pauses to explain a principle in law.

An accurate copy is being sought by Mary Ellen Farrell, Sharon McCarthy, and Sandra Bueno.

Finishing touches are administered during the fourth year. In Business Law classes students learn everyday business principles such as the contract. Neatness and accuracy are a must in Bookkeeping where the methods of recording financial transactions are taught.

Finally, the Senior year mixes the knowledge of all four years in Secretarial and Office Practice. In an office atmosphere Seniors are trained to use machines, improve transcription, and to correct spelling and grammar. Good grooming, tactfulness, poise, and efficiency are emphasized throughout this year.

Sister Mary Ann Tirelli cheerfully assists a student in typing.

Listening attentively, the class receives instructions from Mrs. Durkin.

EXPANDING OUR MIND WITH CONCEPTS

This is a typical pose for the D.C. Math student as Kathi Dunn watches the lesson on the overhead projector.

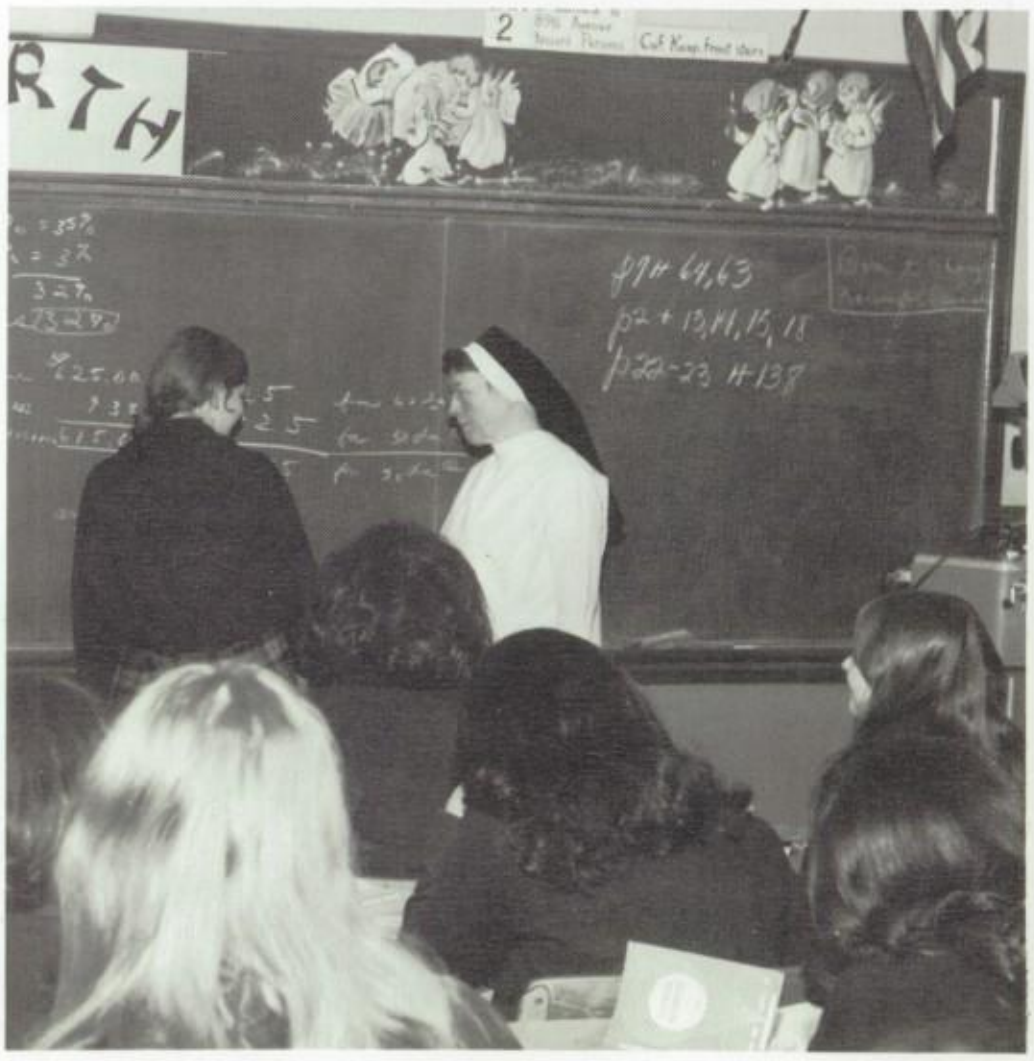
Always ready for that next problem, Sister Florence Rose extends her enthusiasm to all.

Math is challenging to the keen mind with seemingly easy puzzles provided by Sister Gloria Marie.

Mathematics is a fascinating world and the Mathematics Department, under the guidance of Sister Gloria Marie, trys to make it an exciting challenge.

For the freshmen, this challenge begins with the exploration of equations, radicals, and graphs in Algebra. Sophomores have a year filled with Business Arithmetic where one learns about insurance, income tax, and bills of sales. For the college-bound student, there is Tenth Year Mathematics, a combination of Intermediate Algebra, Plane Trigonometry, and Coordinate Geometry.

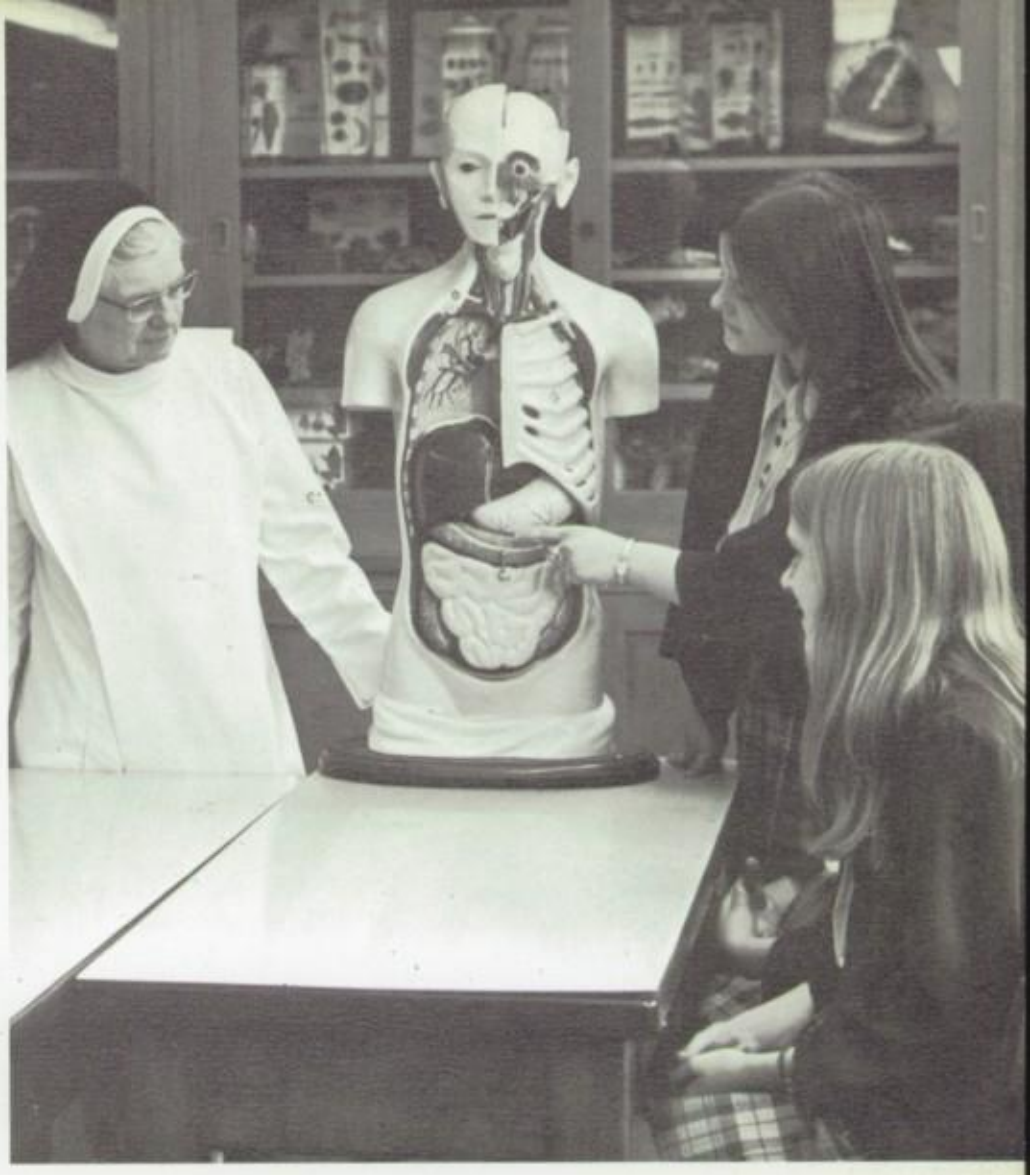
Learning mathematical skills prepares one not only for the world of business or college, but also helps to develop a clear and logical mind.



The moment of truth arrives as Sister Francis Loretta questions such an answer.

LIFE'S COMPLEXITY

That drop of water is filled with tiny animal and plant life.

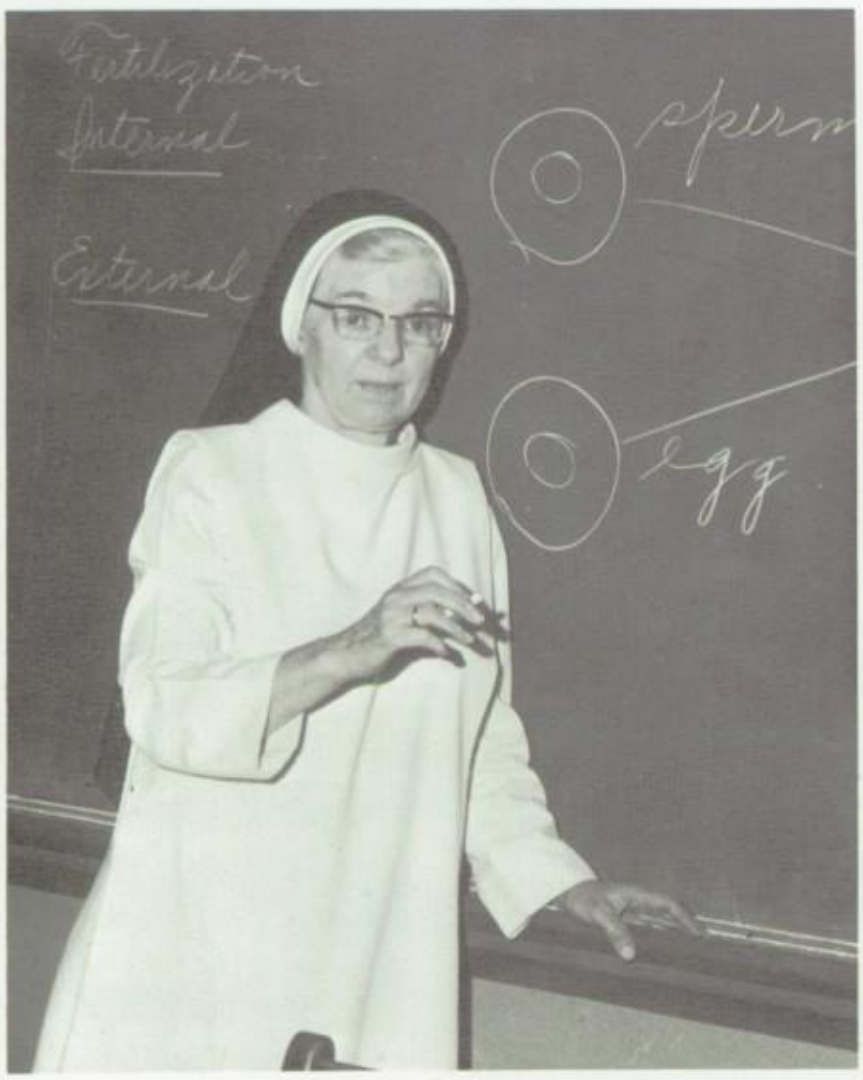


Freshmen take an active part in learning the internal parts of man.

Living in an age of scientific discovery and progress, Dominican's freshmen delve into the study of living things. All forms of plant and animal life, together with their part in the life chain, are examined.

The equipment in our lab further aids students in understanding the fundamentals of existence. Microscopes make it possible to see life forms such as the amoeba and the paramecium, which are not visible to the naked eye. Also, various plant cultures are cultivated and controlled. Experiments show the different properties of substances.

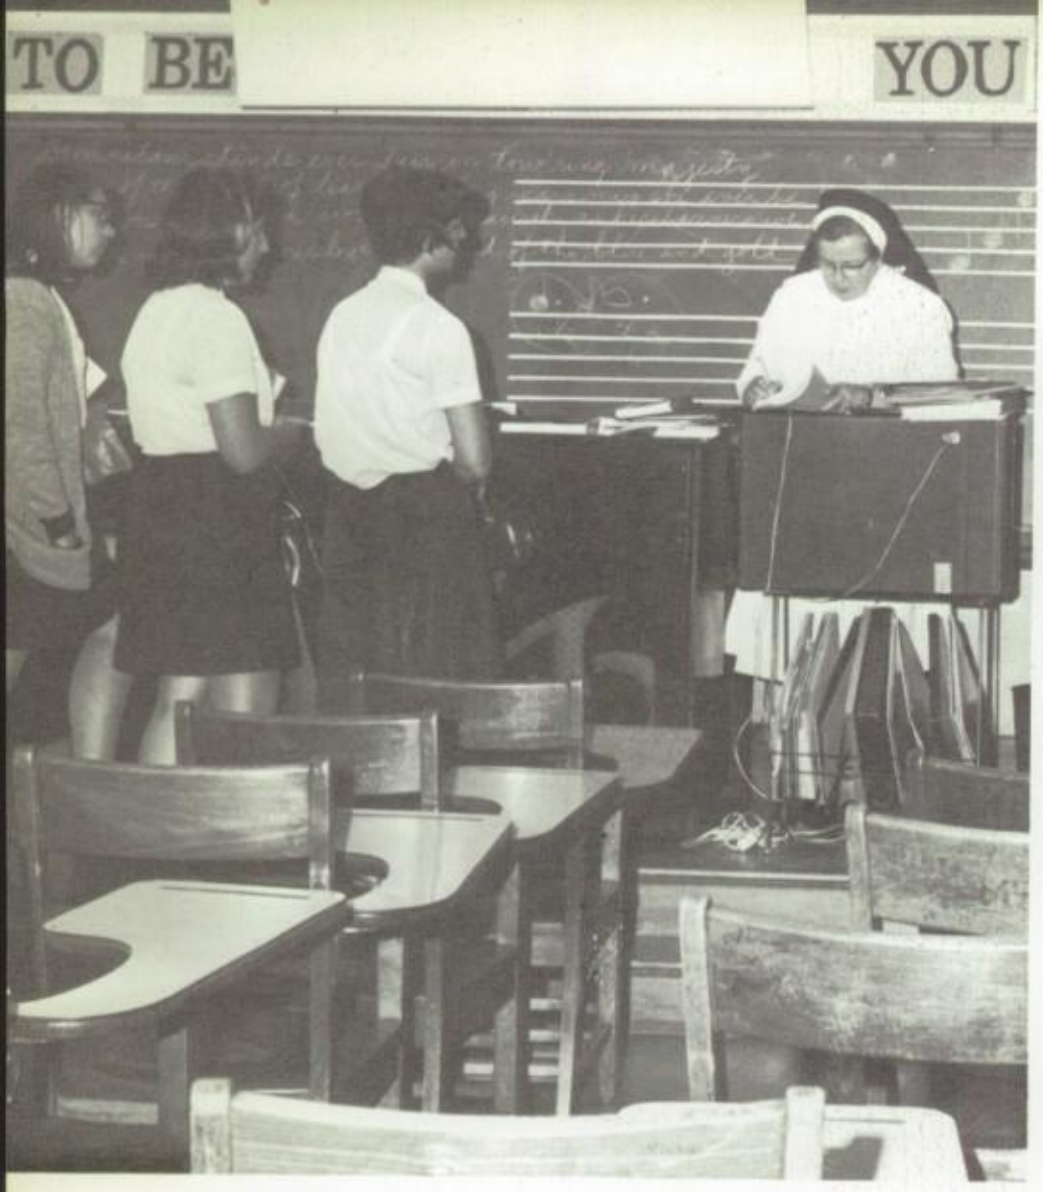
Science requires an eager and open mind to solve life's mysteries. Through patience and careful planning, the wonders of God's world are fully appreciated.



Reproduction is one of the vital biological processes explained by Sister Jeanne D'Arc.

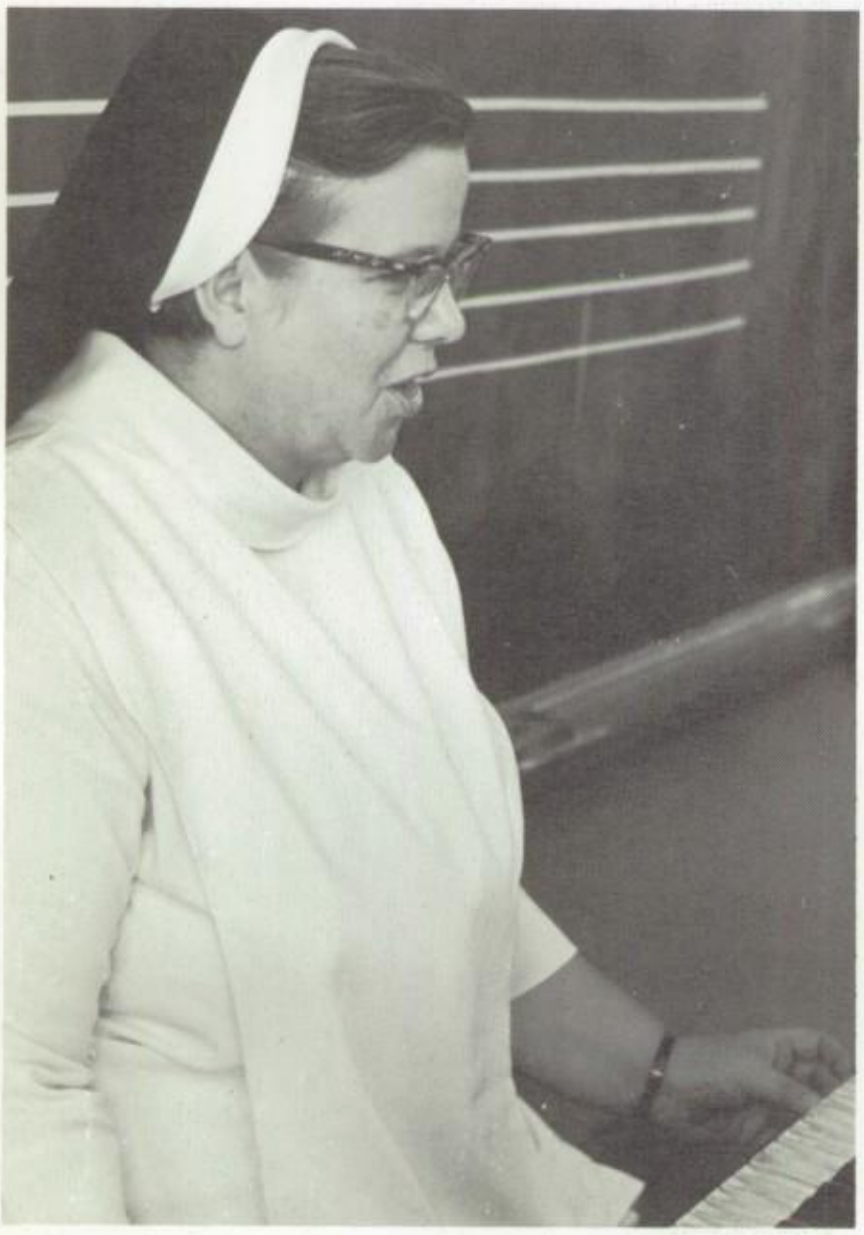
A whole new world of microscopic life unfolds for the biology student.

EXPRESSING OUR BEING



Always on the go, Sister Christophine has students to see her.

Leonard Bernstein has his Philharmonic Orchestra and Sister Christophine has her beloved school band.



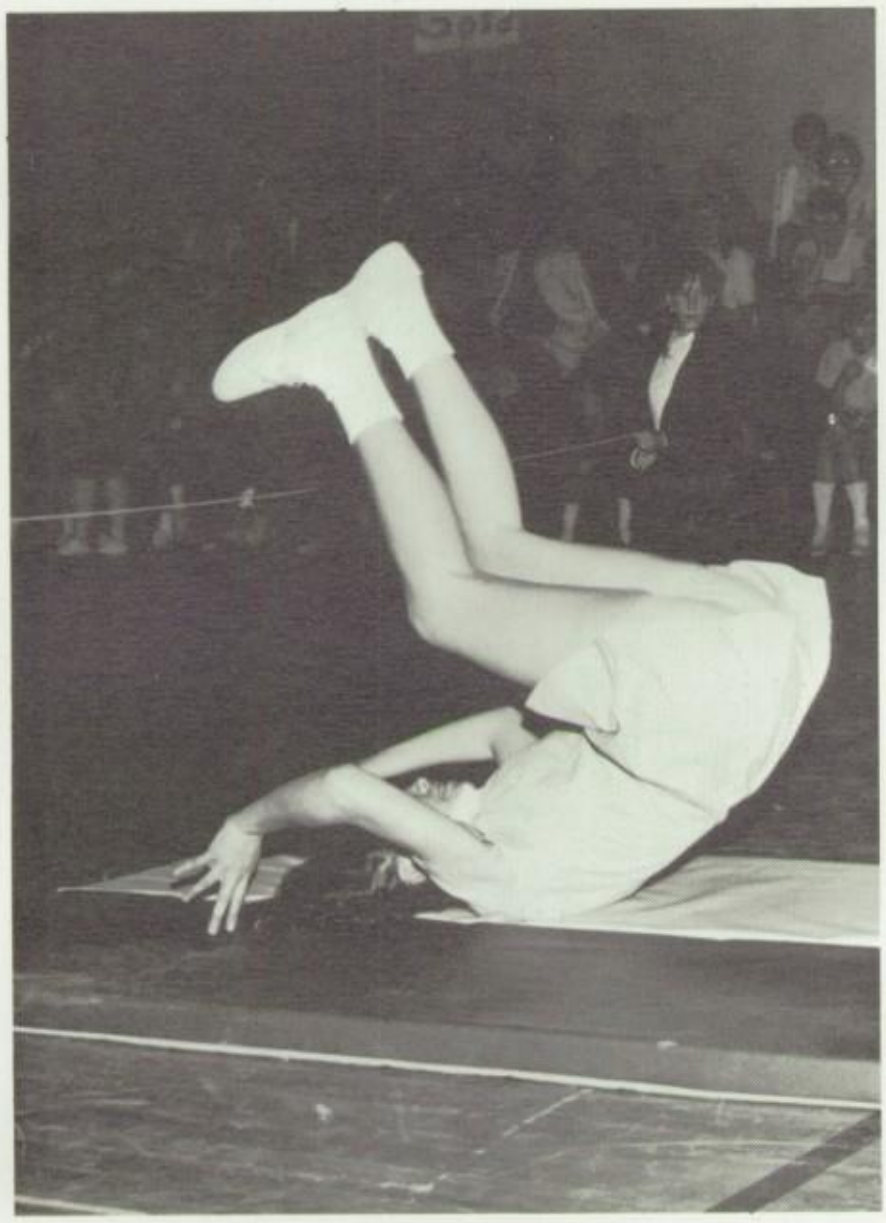
Sister Christophine, peering over her piano, is a familiar figure to many.

Music is one of the most beautiful means of expression available to man. The melodies which pour forth from him in sadness and in ecstasy, come from his very soul. In studying music, we learn to appreciate other human beings.

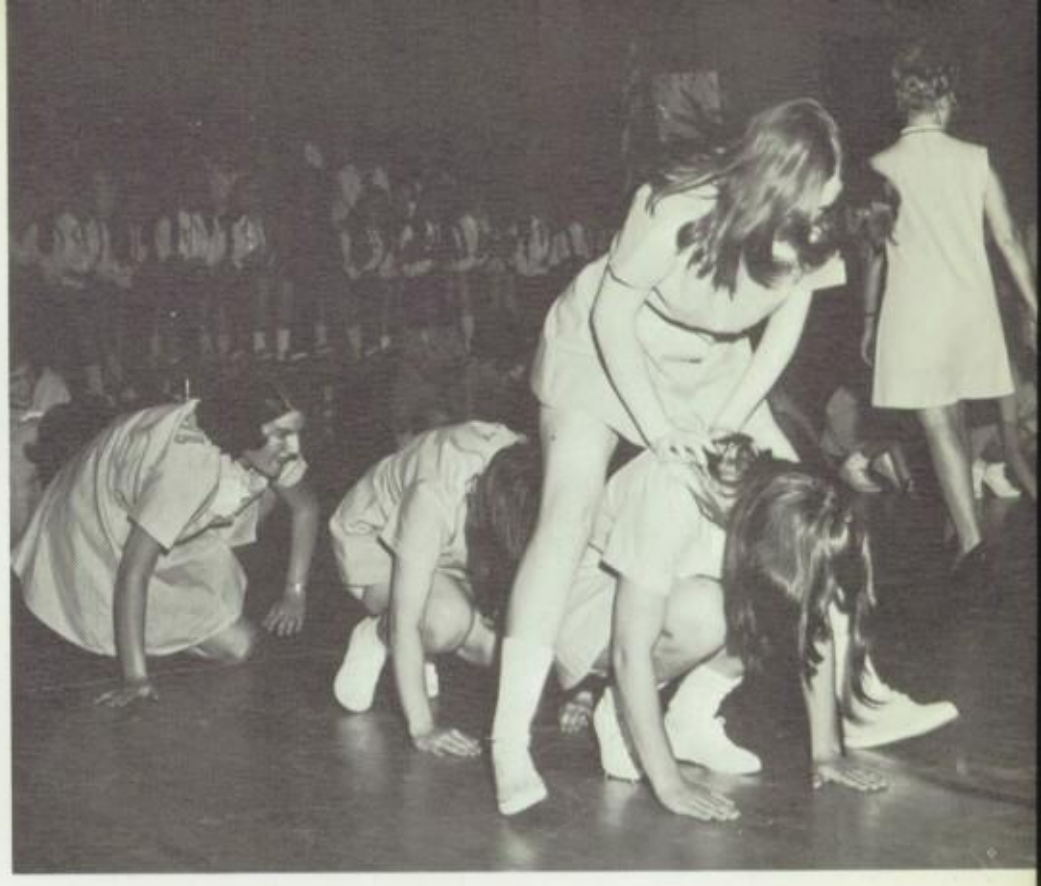
The study of the folk songs of different nations brings us closer to understanding their culture and national customs. It is also very entertaining and enjoyable. Opera, a subject strange to most students, is introduced in Junior year. The stories behind the operas are fascinating, and the melodies so beautiful that many girls grow fond of this form of music.

Undeniably, this fine art is a welcome change of pace in a student's day. It is not a subject merely to be studied, but one to be thoroughly enjoyed as well. It broadens one's mind and develops an appreciation for the finer things in life.

THE KEY TO GOOD HEALTH



A good work-out in gym includes tumbling.



Sport's Night doesn't only include exercises but fun and games as well.

Having a trim figure and being physically fit is the aim of all the girls at Dominican. Twice a week, these never-tiring girls are hard at work running around the gym, jumping rope, and tumbling on mats. They try their skills on the balancing beam and the vaulting box or doing handstands and headstands. There are volleyball and basketball for those who want to increase their athletic ability.

In addition to this, the girls engage in numerous and invigorating exercises for improving their physical condition. The exercises are enjoyable while striving for the desired results.

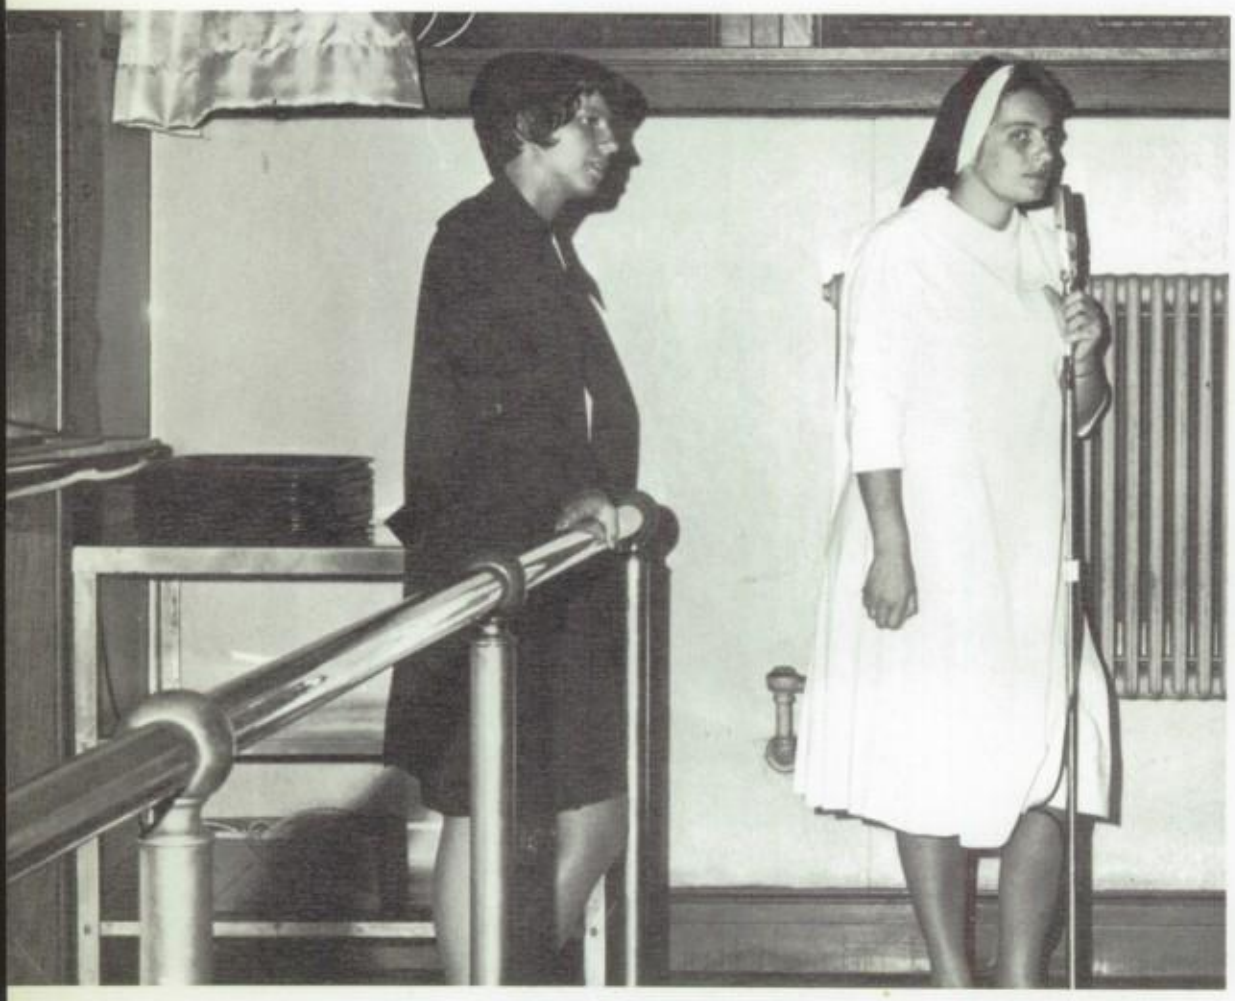
LEADERSHIP IS THE LIFELINE . . .

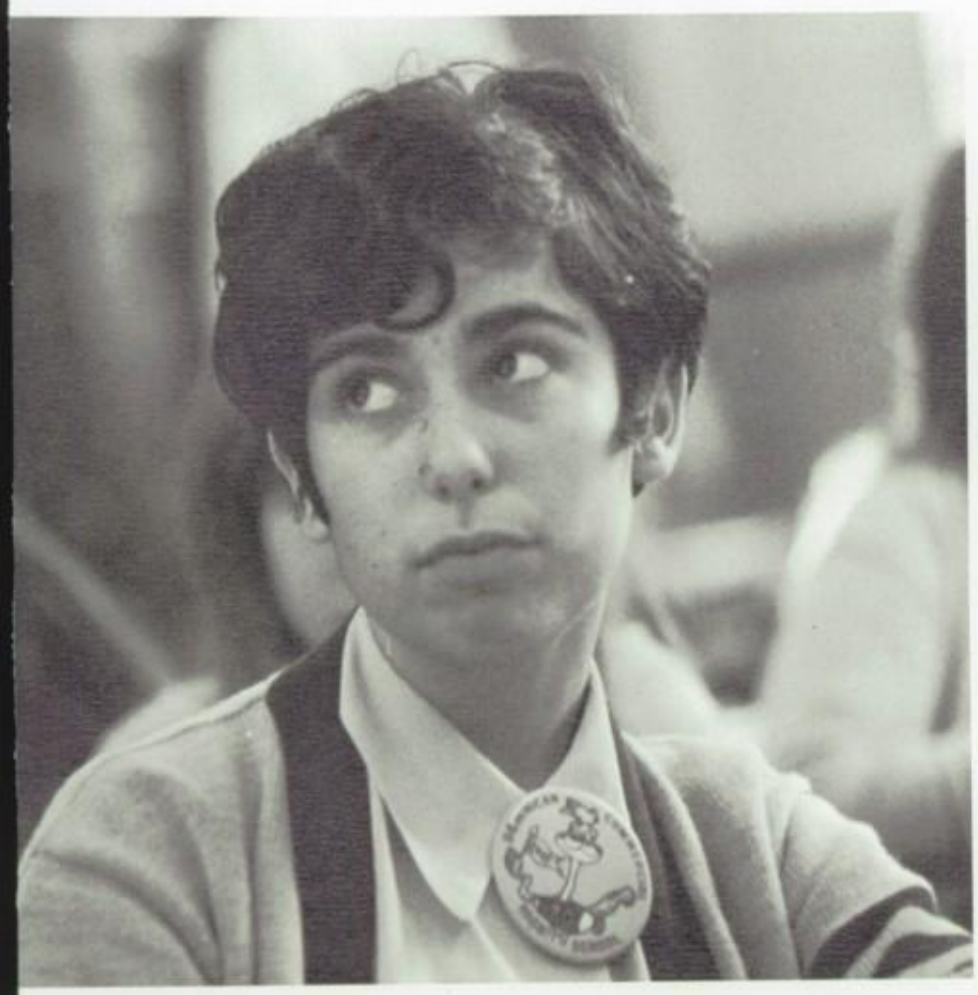


At senior lunch, Ellen Grohl and S. Bernadette Clare lead the girls in prayer.

In preparation for a Friday night Dance, Val Plansker checks the refreshments.

Without a doubt, DC's Student Council has far surpassed itself in accomplishments this year. Through their leadership, our school and activities have been improved and also have revived a spirit of unity. They have co-sponsored our dances, inaugurated senior-freshman sisters, which included a Thanksgiving Mass, and brightened our lives with "A Day of Enrichment." We owe them much, so let this be a small tribute to the Council girls and the school behind them.

Secretary Elaine D'Esposito discusses an interesting point.



"If I knew then what I know now." is a familiar phrase of Barbara Graziano, Student Council President

Student Council girls under Loraine LoSquadro have brightened DC's halls.

This year, Regina Colleary, Ellen Grohl, Lenore LaScala and others from the Senior Student Council shared a meal with Bishop Mugavero.

S. Anne Maureen, Lenore LaScala and Barbara Graziano have encountered many a problem.

On Career Day, one of our Seniors, Diane Reicherter, learns the value of appropriate dress.

Peace is the message of the Gospel read by Pat Purcell.

NEW IDEAS BROUGHT FORTH

Miss Herzman makes an interesting point as Jo Capozzi looks on in preparation for the Moratorium Day Program.

One of the many programs introduced this year was Senior Sisters. The Freshmen and Seniors jointly participated in many activities, among them the Thanksgiving Mass.

Career Day, the last Monday of every month, also originated this year. Here Seniors are permitted to wear business attire as a foreshadowing of future years.

This year also brought Moratoriums to Dominican. With the help of interested girls, the student body participated in a day of peace and understanding for all.

The quiet halls of Dominican are the only retreat for Debbie Veit.

Catherine Ficken and Rosanne Morello are laughing on the outside, but crying on the inside as they spend part of their lunch hour cleaning trays.

A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS

A group of dedicated students wishing to devote their time to the student body and faculty by helping things run smoothly can only be the SSL. By helping the women in the cafeteria, working in the G.O. and answering callers at the school, they show their spirit to the girls of Dominican as well as to the teachers and sisters. Whenever there is a job to be done, these girls are there.

What makes a school newspaper great? The student body thinks the Commercialite has the answer. A combination of efficient editors, competent writers and accurate typists help to make the Commercialite what it is. With the thoughtful suggestions of Miss Krumm, the Commercialite reports the happenings, not only the major events of the school year but the day to day reactions of the student body, as seen through the students eyes. In these ways the Commercialite has definitely proven its worth.

SEARCHING TO LEARN

As American men have reached the moon, DC's Science Club is launching its own exploration of space, studying astronomy as well as oceanography. The officers and Sister have planned numerous films and adventure trips, such as a visit to the Aquarium and a lecture at St. Francis College to encourage the learning of science.

The Math Club also is an activity which offers the students an excellent opportunity to explore a challenging world, that of numbers. Members, together with S. Gloria Marie, venture into Calculus and Logic. This club meets in an atmosphere of experimentation with mathematics.

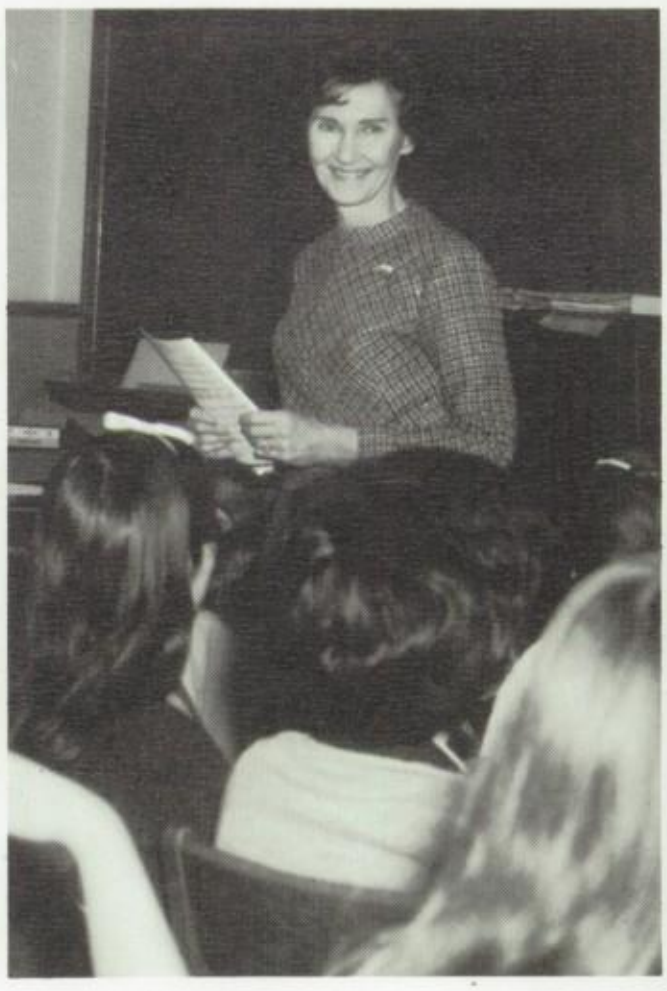
Each year, the Glee Club has given us the Spring Concert.



The Glee Club has been assisted tremendously by Mrs. Mullaly.

Our Glee Club moderator, S. Christophine, supplied the music for Ring Day.

The harmonious projection of many beautiful voices is heard in every Glee Club performance. Whether they entertain at assemblies or at the Spring Concert, the many hours of practice are clearly audible. Under the direction of S. Christophine, the vocal talents of these girls have provided many tuneful moments of enjoyment for everyone in Dominican.

RESIN, REED, RHYTHM: RECITAL

S. Christophine, President Sue Soehnle and Vice-President Janet Soehnle discuss future possibilities for the band.

Valerie Borisch is convinced that "Practice makes perfect."

We peek in on a solo.

The sweet sounds of music can be heard in the stillness of the early morning floating through the halls of Dominican. The source can be detected by finding Sister Christophine and her girls working to combine their musical talents. Their hard work is rewarded with the appreciation of the student body for their performances in concerts and at assemblies. Since music is appreciated by everyone, the girls in the band provide many enjoyable moments for all of our students.

THE PLAYERS

The art of acting is practiced by Joanne Donoher, Dramatics Club President.

Elizabeth Carracciola strikes a tempting pose for the camera's eye.

This year, DC's entertainment capitol has done it again—another triumph for our fantastic Dramatic Circle. Under the direction of Sister Rita, the young actresses have worked hard and diligently to make every performance a success. Between Charles Dickens' Christmas Carol and When A Man Answers, the Dramatic Circle have kept DC buzzing with excitement.

In the last act of When A Man Answers, the members of the cast get together to argue over who will take the first bow.

DISCUSSION: THE DOOR TO UNDERSTANDING

This year YCS has taken on a new look. Aside from the usual discussion groups that observe the problems prevalent today and try to solve them, the girls, under the direction of S. Bernadette Therese have been very active in the community. A visit to a Greek-Orthodox Church, a trip to a Jewish Synogogue, visits to the old age home besides many guests speakers have made YCS'ers more aware of others and more aware of themselves.

Val Plansker, President, knows how to bring cheer where it is needed.

A YCS member, Nellie Gallo, is able to love through understanding.

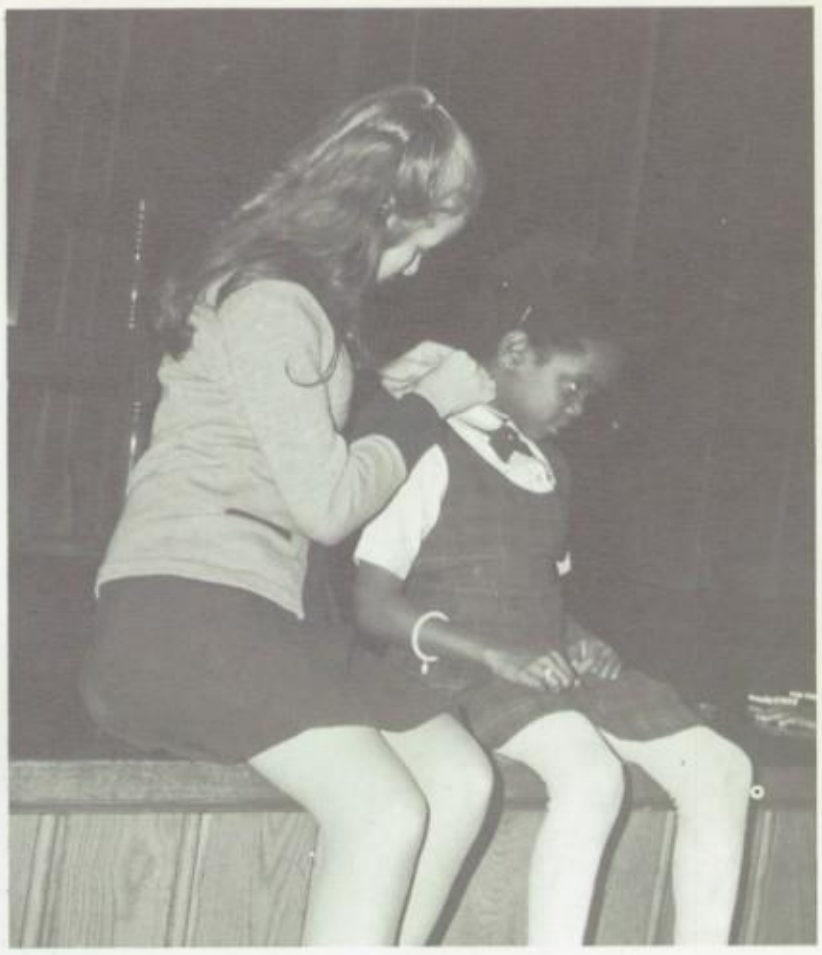
TO GIVE IS TO LIVE

S. Kathleen Mary and President Toni Badalementi discuss a future meeting.



Wanda Lukasiewicz exercises the belief that a little kindness never hurt anyone.

Although the Sodality has been part of our school's activities for quite a while, it has never brought so much good to others as this past year. With the help of S. Kathleen Mary, the officers and girls have done much for the community. They have visited hospitals, brought and wrapped gifts for the aged and sponsored their annual Christmas party for those less fortunate children. For many of the girls, their greatest experience came when they went to Mount Loretto, a mission on Staten Island, where they had a picnic and Mass with the children. It made many think a little less of themselves and more of others.

Vickie Matthes and Lucia Barretti share their Christmas joy . . .

SCORE IF YOU WANT TO PLAY

The gym has been filled with different sounds recently—yells of cheerleaders, screams of approval, the pounding of a ball and the happiness of victory. We have all been inspired by the formation of DC's Basketball team. Under the helpful suggestions of their coach, Madeline Ryan, and moderator, Mrs. Fasano, the girls show the meaning of true sportsmanship and spirit for Dominican. They have worked hard and long to bring success in a new form to our school.

Maureen Hille, Varsity's Captain, makes a perfect layup, as two more points are added to our score.

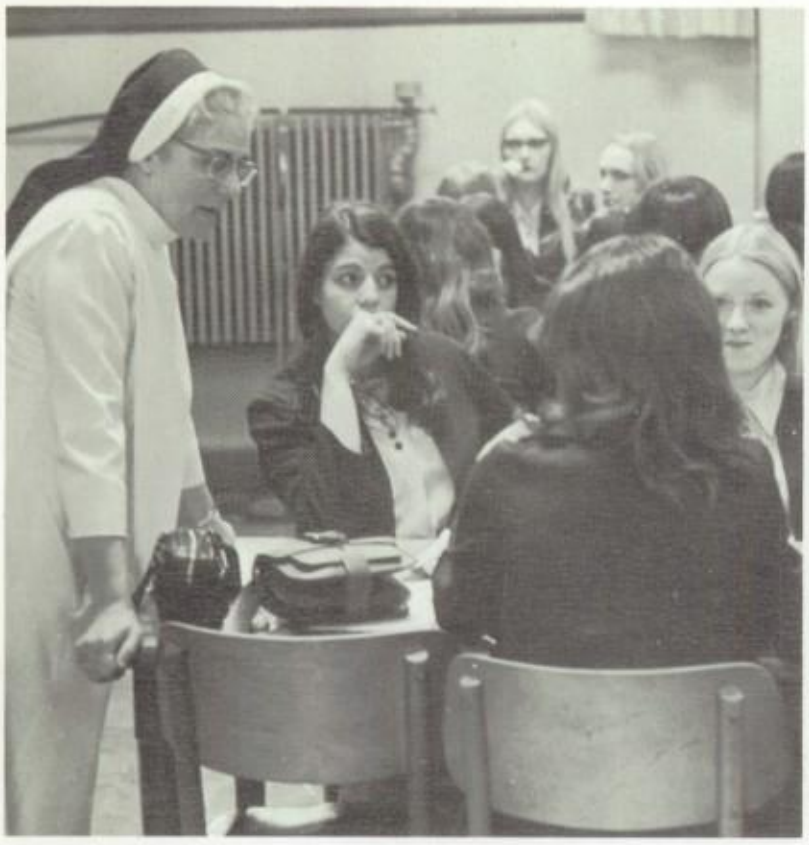
Ellen Grohl is still wondering how that ball stayed up there.

"Some people are always in the way."

A jump ball begins the action against St. Angela Hall.

All for Dominican Commercial stand up and holler!

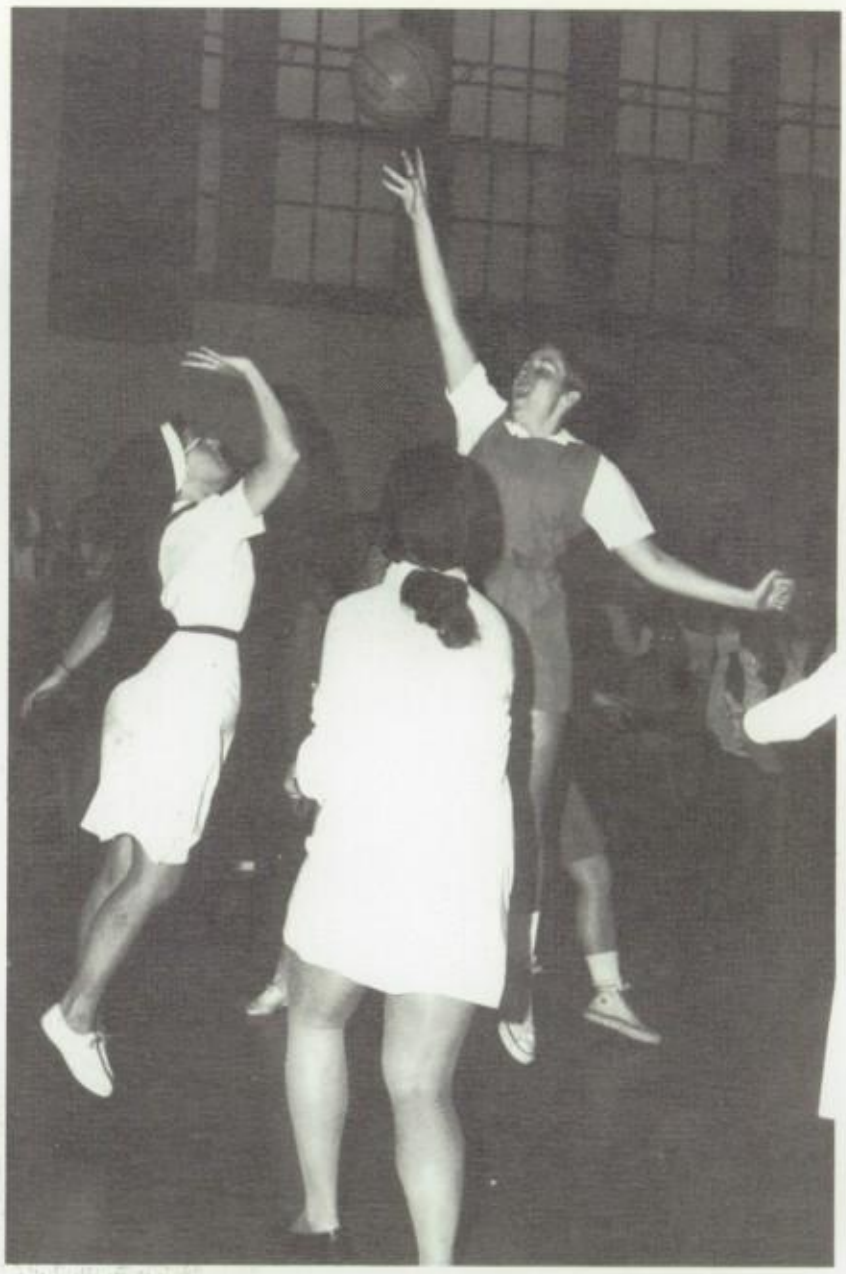
Coach Madeline Regan gives the team some last minute advice before the start of a game.



To senior lunch came S. Miriametta to hear the opinions of some of our graduates.

With the formation of many new clubs came a Student-Faculty Relations Board. Consisting of six teachers and six students from the Student Council, they meet to discuss and act upon any problems brought to them. Through them, many difficulties between faculty and student body have been settled to the satisfaction of both sides.

To create better student-teacher relations, there was also a Student-Faculty Basketball Game. Although the faculty lost, their enthusiasm and efforts were well appreciated by the student body.



"Get that jump ball."

EVERYBODY GET TOGETHER

Student-Faculty Relations Board: Pat Conklin, S. Mary Hope, S. Catherine Anne, Eileen McGoldrick, Rosie Potenza, Ellen Grohl, S. Lorraine, Fran Dadura, S. Rita, Val Plansker, Miss Nancy Herzman, S. Ann Patrice.

Helen Kamna and Kathy Wasservogel show their appreciation to S. Carol Anne.

The chants and cheers that are a contributing factor to the excitement of the basketball games are eagerly provided by the DC cheerleaders and pep squad. These girls whether they be freshman, sophomore, junior or senior cheerleaders, are the essence of school spirit. The quality and precision displayed in their routines and verbal cheers is a result of the determined efforts of Sister Carol Anne and each member. Their enthusiasm fills us with a sense of pride in Dominican and is an example for all the students to follow.

RAH, RAH, RAH, SIS, BOOM, BAH . . .

What goes up must come down.

Two hands are better than one.

At a moment of need, our coach turns to the Cheerleaders for support.

MARK, TIME, MARCH

Precision, grace and coordination is the formula for winning trophies in twirling, so by the number of trophies to DC's credit, it is obvious that the Baton Club possesses these qualities in abundance. The girls meet under the guidance of Sister William Marie and Mr. McShea to practice new routines and ideas for future use. This year their efforts paid off at such times as St. Patrick's Day when they marched proudly down Fifth Avenue.

Linda Mueller and Eileen Ceely watch as MiMi Farrell demonstrates a new step.

A new routine is eagerly displayed by Cathy Albitz, Eileen Ceely, Barbara Salmon and Judy Kraemer.

First Praesidium: Deborah Carney, Alice Cataldi, Ann Lavender, Veronica Strong, Ann Schellenberg, Mary Tittmann, Mary Hargous, Marybeth Coccaro, S. Grace Dominic.

Second Praesidium: Theresa Morici, Marsha Rodman, Barbara Gard, Carol Lubniewski, Selena Rodman, Louisa Nappo, Mary Sherman, Wanda Lukasiewicz, S. Grace Dominic.

LETTING IT SHINE

Members of Jr. Red Cross listen to instructions for a new project.

The Mystical Rose Praesidium and the newly formed Mary, Mother of Peace Praesidium of DC's Legion of Mary are under the guidance of S. Grace Dominic. These girls, spending much of their time doing volunteer work, teaching the retarded children, candystriping, and tutoring at St. Monica's parish, show what is meant by the true spirit of giving. "To Jesus through Mary," their motto, is well carried out.

Another group of DCites have contributed their work and dedication to the needy through the Jr. Red Cross. The members, together with S. Elizabeth Ann and S. Mary Ann Tirelli, hem diapers, crib sheets, blankets, stuff dolls and bake delicate confections as small works of kindness to the community.

Jr. Red Cross Officers: Marianne Lennie, S. Elizabeth Ann, S. Mary Ann Tirelli, Nancy Staab, Lucille Mellini, Rosemarie Potenza.

EXERCISE: OUR KEY

Cathy Albitz and Terry Burke combine their gymnastic abilities for Sports Night.

Mrs. Weiss gives helpful suggestions to girls in both Gymnastics and Volley Ball.

For all those girls who wish to be healthy and have an attractive figure Mrs. Zwia Weiss has the solution. Under her direction, the Gymnastic Club meets on Thursday mornings bright and early to build that Miss America look. At that time, they do cartwheels, tumble, jump over the vaulting box, stand on their heads and perform other talents never before known.

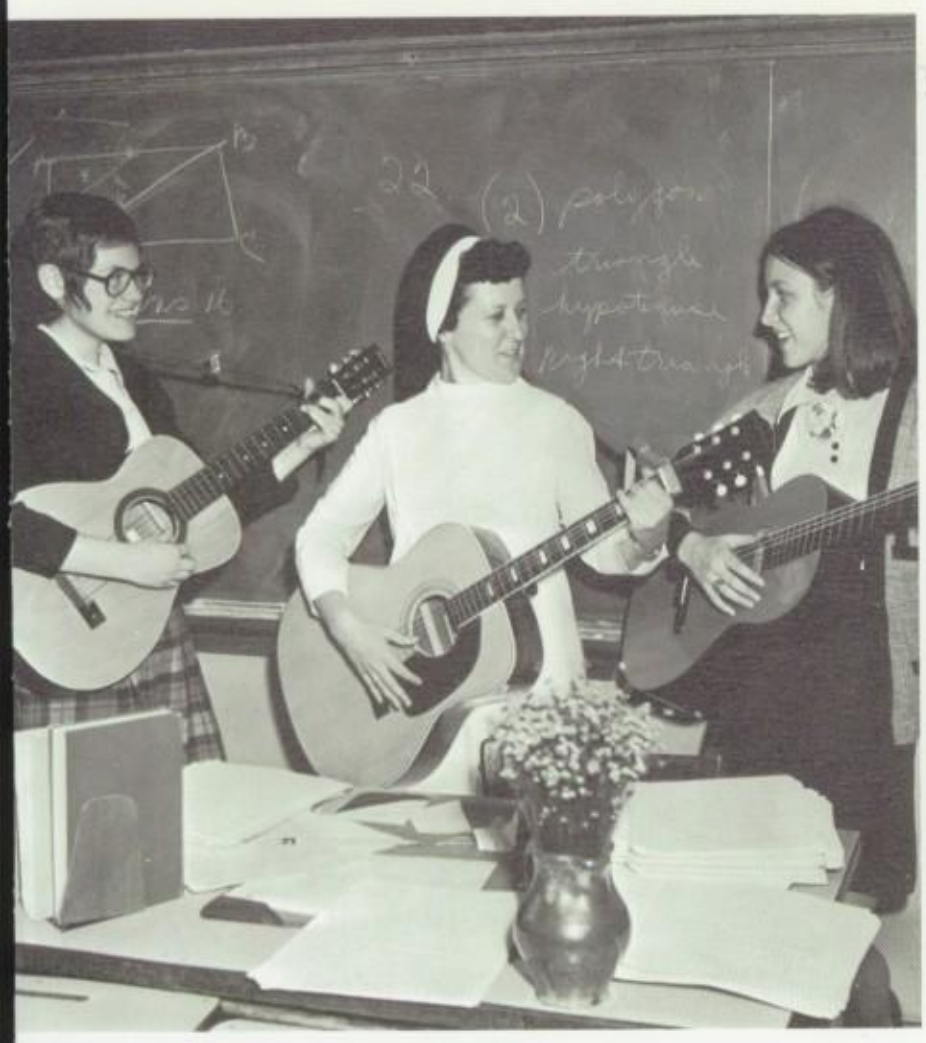
Mrs. Weiss is also the coach of the volleyball team. Since it was just formed this year, the girls gained more experience and confidence in their abilities with each game. Their eagerness to play and win is a spirited addition to DC's extra-curricular activities.

D.C.'s volleyball team bends over backwards to win.

Marie Dunnigan shows her winning serve.

EXPRESSION

AT DOMINICAN



Secretary Debbie Eller, S. Jeanne Andre and President Terry Burke during a weekly meeting.

Music for an upcoming event is practiced by members of the Guitar Club.

There are many different ways for a person to express herself. The Writer's Circle and the Guitar Club are two outstanding examples of areas where the girls can utilize their imaginations to relate their feelings to others. Through their literature and music, these girls reveal another avenue of enjoyment to DCites. The performance of the Guitar Club and the compositions of the Writer's Circle make the students proud of the talents and efforts of these girls.

The cultural benefits of Spain are explored and enjoyed by the members of the Spanish Club. With the guidance of Mrs. Silvia Alvarez, the girls learn many Spanish songs and some national dances. Some of their other activities include dining at several Spanish restaurants and appreciating the different customs of this foreign country.

KNEELING: Ann Donohue, JoGrace Bonasera, Connie Maione; STANDING: Madeline Iorio, Diane Lipinsky, Darlene Gagliardi, Elaine Dolan, Elizabeth Lucivero, Lorraine Loschiavo.

Catherine Anne, Joan Davis.

The rhetoric of men like Patrick Henry and William Jennings Bryan is seriously being challenged by the eloquent members of the Speech Club. Under the suggestions of S. Catherine Anne, the orators of DC meet every Wednesday to polish and perfect their recitations. The expert use of their talents of verbal communication has resulted in the reception of many honors and awards. While some people believe that "silence is golden," the Speech Club demonstrates the advantage of the constructive application of the powers of speech.

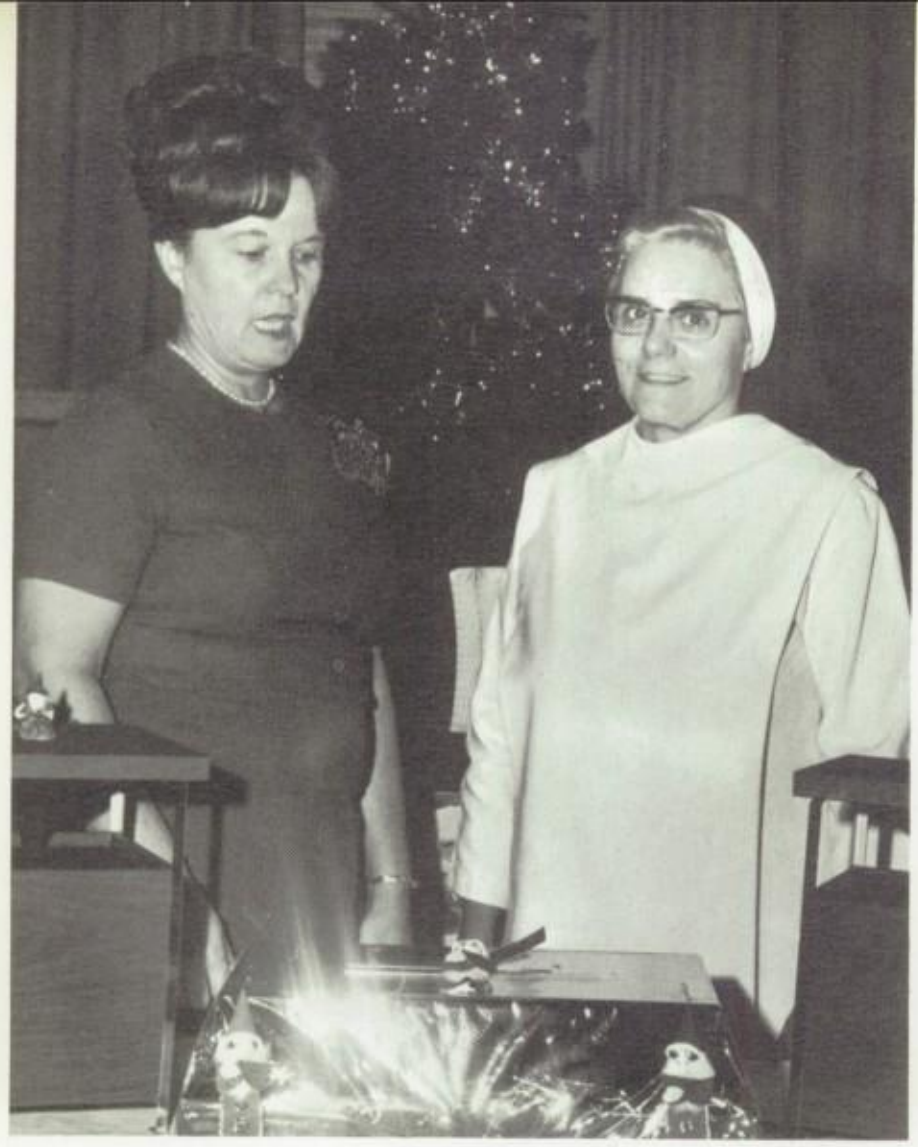
Fran Slattery and Joan Davis talk about contest for which trophy is proof.

Members of the Bowling team find it both relaxing and strenuous.

STRIKE, SPARE, SPEAK UP

One of the girls displays the correct form for a strike.

Every Wednesday afternoon, DC's bowling teams invade Van Wyck Lanes. Once there, the teams participate in friendly competition. This enables the girls to learn the great value of true sportsmanship and to enjoy themselves while doing so.



S. Miriametta and Mrs. Poisson, President of Mothers Club, look over the stereo presented to the sisters at the Christmas party.

Santa's little helpers.

THE MAMAS . . .

The Vice-President of the Mothers Club shares a secret with one of the youngsters.

For the mothers of DC's students, the meetings of the Mother's Club offer both a social gathering and an excellent opportunity to learn about the local news of Dominican. This year's Mother's Club, under President Mrs. Gloria Poisson, has been quite active. Among their activities have been their luncheon card parties, the annual dance, which this year was a Hawaiian Luau, and their Christmas party. At this last event, the mothers presented S. Miriametta with a beautiful stereo and other lovely gifts for the sisters.

Another Tom Jones????

Simple Simon says . . .

Once a month, the fathers of DC's girls get together on a Tuesday night with their President to discuss and learn of their daughters' school. These men service our school by giving their time and talents freely. They chaperon our dances, undertake necessary improvements in our school and sponsor the annual Pop-Hop. One big event of their year and ours is the Father-Daughter Communion Breakfast, which has proven to be a great success.

By their attendance, our parents prove their pride in Dominican as well as in their daughters.

"And I had to miss Red Skelton for this."

Lots & lots of luck
in your future &
thanks for all your help this year. You're been really great. All the kidding (so here's one
I hope you know) 'cause we really love you! All my love!

REFLECTIONS . . .

JUNIOR PROM . . .
balloons, kites and child-like wonders stir an innocent freshness and puddles all over the world waiting to be jumped across . . .

WASHINGTON TRIP . . .
promenade through halls of history; majestic and towering though they seem, leaving an age to be remembered and another to be seen.

RING DAY . . .
delicate drops or towering torrents could never have washed away mixed emotions . . . light, lacey laughter, spring's fragrance in autumn quiet, crystally crying.

HALLOWEEN . . .
all hollows' eve brings gentle beasties and funny nosed strangers together . . .

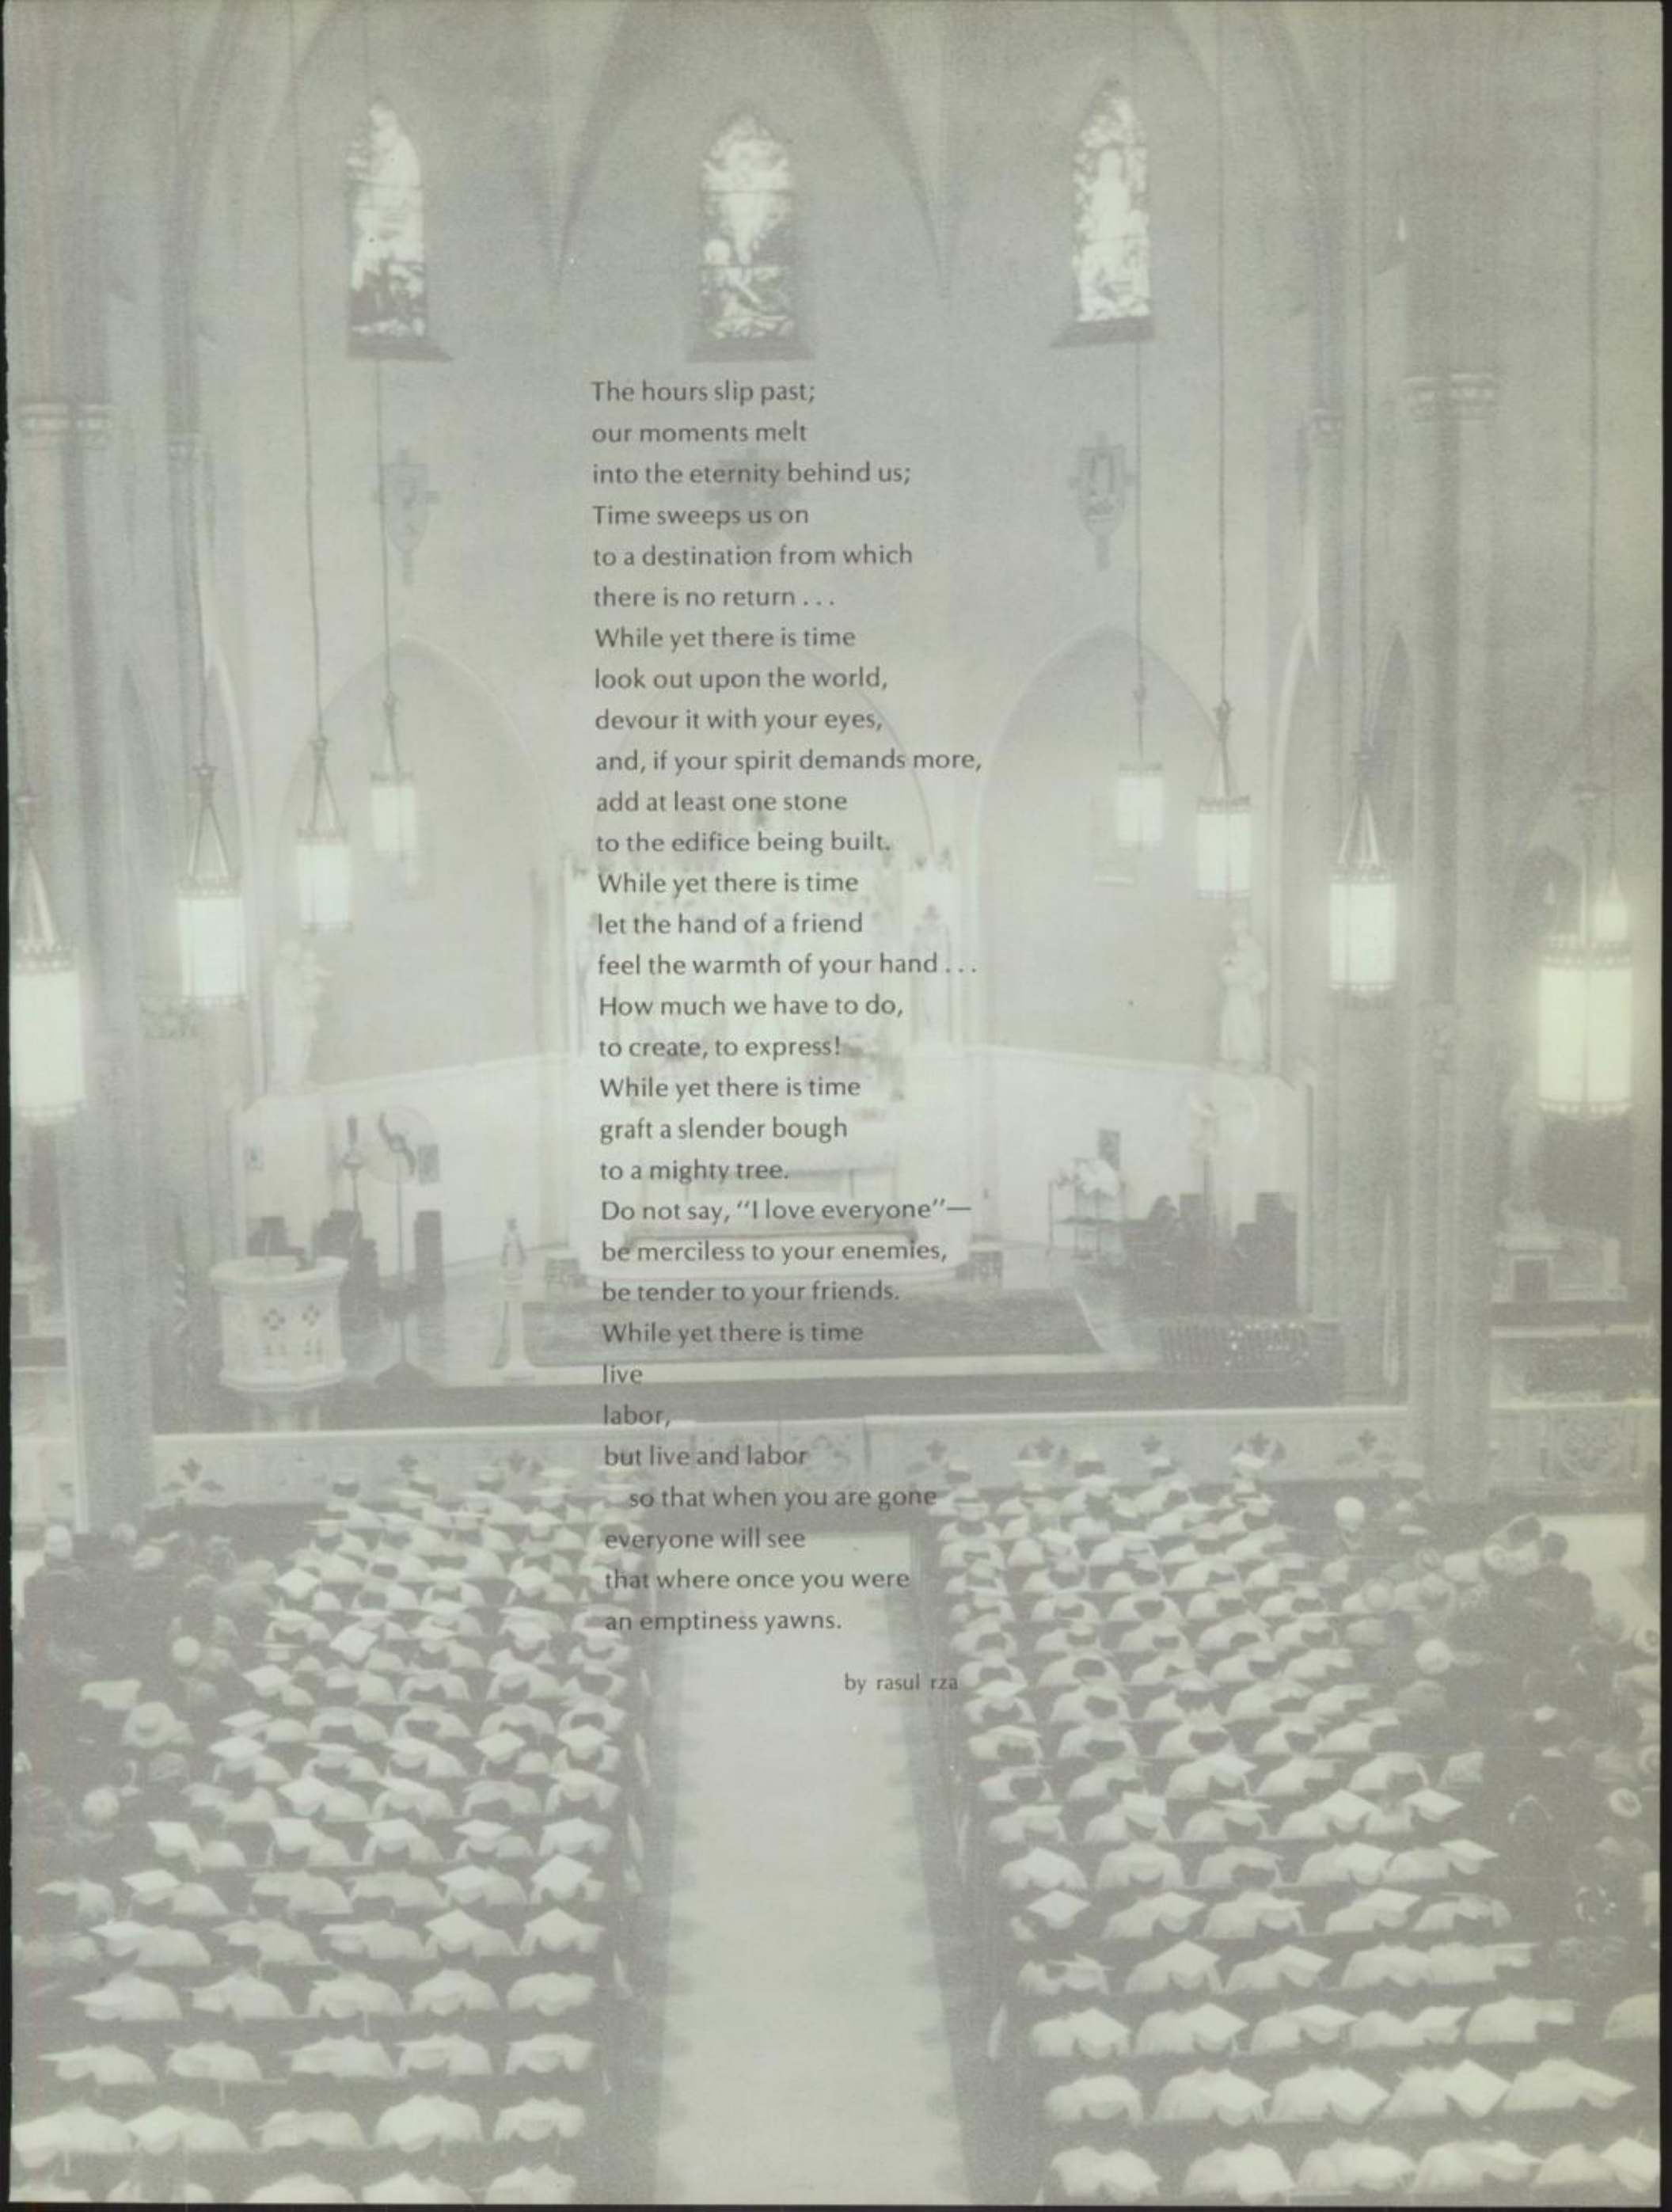
CHRISTMAS . . .
days in december carry christmas' toasty warmth and virgin snow and the brilliant awareness of each other

SENIOR LUNCH . . .
the coming of senior year brought along with it many privileges. among the many was the seventh period lunch. each day it became the survival of the fittest. the empty trays and candy machines awaited us faithfully. there was only one solution . . . bring our own lunch.

SENIOR-MOTHER LUNCHEON . . . the long awaited event arrived; the girls and their mothers shared the enjoyment of a lovely afternoon; the grand ballroom rang out with beautiful music as the girls and mothers sang Rock My Soul.

What makes the Dominican Senior is not only the D.C. sweater, ring and senior button. The spirit of the class of 1970 is what makes her. These four years, filled with happiness and tears, have witnessed the blossoming of a child into a beautiful independent woman.

On the threshold of a new world; a deep distance with baskets of mysteries and wonders awaits us. dreams to be realized hopes to be fulfilled each has a season of its own just as each of us will find our own basket under a couple-colored dawn



The hours slip past;
our moments melt
into the eternity behind us;
Time sweeps us on
to a destination from which there is no return . . .
While yet there is time
look out upon the world,
devour it with your eyes,
and, if your spirit demands more,
add at least one stone
to the edifice being built.
While yet there is time
let the hand of a friend
feel the warmth of your hand . . .
How much we have to do,
to create, to express!
While yet there is time
graft a slender bough
to a mighty tree.
Do not say, "I love everyone"—
be merciless to your enemies,
be tender to your friends.
While yet there is time
live
labor,
but live and labor
so that when you are gone everyone will see that where once you were an emptiness yawns.

Dear Miss Heyman,

Senior year has been a year of beautiful memories and you've contributed to so many of them. I really don't know how you put up with me sometimes - running in and out of English classes! You've really been great as an officer and we won't forget you.

I hope your new life is filled with love and happiness - you deserve all the world can give!

Keep in touch!

Love,
Barbara

Dear Miss Herzman,

Well, it's been a long year, and thanks a lot for making it a happy one.

I want to wish you much happiness always with Chris, because you deserve it.

I'll never forget you - see you in August. Love always,

Mi Mi

Dear Miss Herzman

You've been one of the best and most caring teacher I've ever had. Stay just as you are, there's too few teachers who will take the time to do the best job.

Best wishes for a very happy and prosperous marriage & hope that only the best of life comes your way.

Love

Nancy P.

Dear Miss Herzman,

I don't know how to begin - you've been fantastic. I don't know any one who would have put up with me the way you did.

I hope your future together with Chris is filled with the utmost happiness. I hope that you're both blessed with success, growing love and of course a beautful child - (I hope you have at least six)

Thank you for every thing miss Herzman & I'll never forget you.

Love

Jean

Dear Miss Herzman,

I just want to thank you for being so great! You were responsible for making this year enjoyable for us.

Best of Luck with everything and much happiness & joy in future years with Chris.

Love,

Sharon
